

1,000 CITY CLERKS STRIKE

HELP VICTIMS OF TORNADO, MAYOR PLEADS

Relief Work Rushed; Deaths Total 181.

FOR TORNADO VICTIMS

The Tribune will accept contributions offered for the relief of the hundreds of destitute and homeless victims of Sunday's storm. All contributions, checks, or currency, should be sent care of the Cashier, The Chicago Tribune.

Mayor Thompson issued a proclamation last night calling upon the people of Chicago to subscribe to a fund for the relief of the hundreds made homeless and destitute in Chicago and vicinity by Sunday's tornado.

In response to a resolution passed by the city council in the afternoon the mayor also appointed a general relief committee which will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon to take charge of the relief agencies already in the field.

While every relief body in the city at state was bending its energies to aid and alleviate the suffering in the broken communities Chicago, the middle west, and the south last night stock of the havoc wrought. Repeated reports made possible by the re-establishment of telegraphic and telephone communications, place the death list in eight storm swept states at 181 and the property loss at more than $10,000,000.

31 Killed in Illinois.

The tornado swept from Michigan on the north to Alabama and as far east as Ohio, dipping for a final fling of destruction in Georgia before it lost itself in the Atlantic. Thirty-one persons lost their lives in Illinois. Indiana had 23 killed; Ohio, 26; Michigan, 12; Georgia, 13; and Alabama, 21. One life was lost in Missouri, and another in Wisconsin.

The loss in Illinois was estimated at $10,000,000. More than $1,000,000 damage was done in Alabama and the loss in Georgia was estimated at twice that amount.

Troops Guard Ruined Areas.

Gen. Lowden at Springfield has issued by the Red Cross that that organization will be able to handle the situation in northern Illinois. Although no formal appeal for assistance has been made, orders were issued for the maintenance of state troops in all storm swept areas, and Gen. St. Clair Drake directed all health officers and sanitary engineers to assist the local health authorities in military work. Headquarters were established by Paul Hansen, chief sanitary engineer, at the Hotel Sherman, while Officers Hoagland and Murphy were sent to the districts immediately outside of Chicago.

Des Moines Citizens Contribute.

It was announced at the meeting last night that $10,000 had been raised by local chapters of fraternal orders at Des Moines, Park, Maywood and Bell, toward the relief of the residents of those towns. The firm of E. A. Cummings & Co., real estate dealers, donated $1,000 and a fund of $6,000 has been raised by the Melrose Park Chapter of the Red Cross.

The Red Cross, headed by J. W. Chapman, had assisted the village authorities during the day and Village Trustees. Well announced at night that every one had been supplied with necessary shelter. Members of sympathy were passed to the board on motion of President John Reinberg and County Agent Chapman directed all township superintendents to cooperate in the relief work to their fullest extent.

Government Offers Aid.

From Washington came the announcement that the surplus building material and supplies held by the government will be rushed to the victims areas by E. C. Morse, director of sales, and sold in the devastated areas and towns at cost prices.

A fund of $10,000 for immediate relief was appropriated by the executive

Danes Riot to Oust King; Demand a Republic

Monarch to Give Answer This Morning

COPENHAGEN, March 29.—(12:30 a. m.)—Crowds fill public squares throughout the city, demanding the establishment of a Danish republic, and all streets leading to the royal palace are held by the police.

King Christian late at night received a Socialist deputation, with which he conversed for half an hour. Demands were submitted and the king promised a definite reply at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The nature of the demands was not made public.

COPENHAGEN, March 29.—The republic of Denmark may be proclaimed by the progressive parties as a result of the summary dismissal of the cabinet by King Christian today.

Premier C. T. Zahle, who also has been minister of justice since he formed the ministry on June 21, 1919, was summoned to a conference by the king. He was asked for the resignation of the cabinet. Zahle refused.

The monarch then announced that the ministry was discharged, and requested the premier to act until a new cabinet was formed. Zahle declined.

Lawyer Forms Cabinet.

M. Liebe, an advocate in the high court, then formed a new cabinet at the request of the king. M. Liebe is a well known conservative politician. He is not a member of parliament.

H. De Grevenkop-Castenskiold, Danish minister to Great Britain, has been appointed foreign minister in the new cabinet, no member of which holds a seat in parliament.

Later a deputation of trade unionists and Socialists visited King Christian and notified him that unless he revoked the dismissal of Premier Zahle a general strike would be called throughout Denmark next Wednesday.

The governmental crisis turns upon the disposition of the second Schleswig zone. Zahle considered this question as settled in favor of Germany by the recent plebiscite. However, there has been a strong agitation among the opposition parties in favor of at least the provisional internationalization of Flensburg and the second Schleswig zone.

Fear Prussian Vengeance.

A Flensburg dispatch to the Berlinische Tidende says a citizen deputation has presented a petition signed by 18,000 Flensburgers, to the international commission, protesting against being surrendered to "Prussian hatred, vengeance, and persecution."

The National Tidende, commenting on the ministerial crisis, says:

"The Zahle ministry, that uncanny government whose chief stood convicted a liar by the upper house, and having lost the majority in the lower house still clung to power, trying to keep the last—now is happily disposed. The king, fully grasping the seriousness of the situation, did his duty and used his constitutional power."

Rumor of Republic.

The rumor that a republic is not without the bounds of possibility was commented upon in the Koebenhavn. The Politiken describes the situation as a "unique coup d'etat in Danish constitutional history."

The rigasid adjourned yesterday for the Easter holiday, most of the members departing for their homes.

Clerk Saves 100 Million for U. S. on Congress' Errors

Washington, D. C., March 29.—(Special.)—One efficient clerk saved the government $100,000,000 on a single appropriation bill. The house today voted him $10,000 as his pay for service in the last—now is happily disposed. The king, fully grasping the seriousness of the situation, did his duty and used his constitutional power."

Nick Not Worried About House, but Voting Place

Nick Basco, genial chauffeur at the Criminal court building, took a leave of absence yesterday to go house hunting. He said the storm had moved his house from Melrose Park to some spot in Maywood.

"I ain't so much worried about the house," he said, "but I'm wondering which town I'll have to vote in at the April primaries."

SAYS SINN FEIN PLOTTERS SLEW MAYOR OF CORK

London Mail Points to "Execution."

DUBLIN, March 29.—The police garrison at the village of Regge, near Thurles, got out of hand today and shot up the town. Armed with rifles, they marched through the streets firing indiscriminately. The outbreak is believed to have been in revenge for the recent murder of one of their comrades.

LONDON, March 29.—Official inquiries in Ireland have proved beyond a doubt that Thomas MacCurran, lord mayor of Cork, who was assassinated a week ago Saturday night, was "actually a victim of Sinn Fein vengeance," says the Daily Mail.

It declares it has obtained its information upon "unimpeachable authority."

Seven Doomed to Death.

Lord Mayor MacCurran and six other prominent men who were expelled from the inner circle of the Sinn Fein and condemned as traitors to the cause they had vowed to support were doomed to death, the newspaper says.

Of these seven, Lord Mayor MacCurran was the first to be killed. Another, Prof. Stockley, was shot at four times, but escaped with his life. A third whose identity has not been disclosed was found blindfolded, bound and shot to death in a field at Limrick. He held in his hand a rosary.

The remaining four are still alive so far as known.

Followed Mail Van Raid.

"It appears," the newspaper declares, "that the Sinn Fein inner circle organized an attack on a mail van in Dublin on March 3 and the men sent to do the work secured correspondence which was being forwarded to the Dublin castle. Whether in this correspondence there was found anything implicating the seven expelled men is not clear, but apparently there is good ground for this view."

"Two days after the attempt to murder Prof. Stockley, Lord Mayor MacCurran, who although a Sinn Fein, had strongly denounced the Sinn Fein campaign, was killed. There is no doubt now in the minds of Irish officials that his murderers were Sinn Fein followers acting under the orders of the inner ring of the Irish Republican brotherhood."

Says Meeting Was Held.

The Times has received a dispatch from Cork, which says:

"It has been ascertained that on the night of March 17 there was a circle meeting of the Irish Republican brotherhood which was attended by Lord Mayor MacCurran and other prominent persons. At this meeting seven members of the brotherhood were expelled. It is significant that one of the persons present was fired upon after leaving the meeting and that on the night of March 30 the lord mayor was shot dead. At the meeting accusations were made of infidelity to the cause of the Irish Republican brotherhood."

HOME RULE DEBATE

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(By Special Cable.)
(Copyright, 1920, by The Tribune Company.)

LONDON, March 29.—Ian MacPherson, chief secretary for Ireland, in the crowded house of commons this afternoon moved a second reading of the home rule bill in a speech lasting an hour. This, he said, is the fourth home rule bill to come before parliament and like all the rest provided maintenance of the imperial connection. "Secession never would be tolerated. There could be no more suicidal policy for Ireland herself from the material point of view," he said.

Mr. MacPherson said the government was prepared to listen sympathetically to all suggestions for amendment. Discussing the finances, he said Ireland must contribute a share of the imperial expenditure, but the share demanded is only $20,000,000 to Great Britain's $3,000,000,000.

J. R. Clynes, Labor, made the leading speech of the opposition, in which he

'TIP TRUST' TIPS ALL JOY OUT OF LODGE'S PARTY

Checkers, Guests, Mix; Suits Threaten.

A pleasant time was not had by all, it appears, at the party of 800 members of the Eastern Star at the Palmer house Saturday night. Mrs. Louisa L. Mintz is worthy matron of the order. Mr. Mintz, worthy patron, and Mrs. Lillian Frey was custodian of the cloak room.

Mrs. Frey, Mr. Mintz, deposes, wasn't invited to the party, but was thrust upon it by what he designates as the checkroom trust conducted by Samuel and Clifford Wolf, and operating in the large loop hotels, cafes, and theaters.

This, however, was not disclosed until near the conclusion of the party, when two Eastern Star women, palpably perturbed, informed Mr. Mintz: "We can't get our wraps. She wants 10 cents."

Mr. and Mrs. Mintz hurried out to question Mrs. Frey. Mr. Mintz says she seized him by the coattail and endeavored to dissuade him from entering the cloak room.

Another checker, Dorothy Owens, joined her, he says, and the two belabored him.

Mrs. Frey counters.

Mrs. Frey says Mr. Mintz grasped her by the right arm, twisted it, and displaced the knuckle of her third finger. She had to hide in parlor O, behind a clothes rack, she says, because about five hundred women members of the Eastern Star tried to pull her hair and scratch her face.

She visited the detective bureau last night and asked a warrant for Mr. Mintz's arrest on a charge of assault and battery. She was told she would have to appear before Judge Hayes in the South Clark street court this morning and lodge formal complaint.

That Tipping Trust.

"We intend to institute action to recover damages from the Palmer House and the tipping trust," said Mr. Mintz. "One woman was kicked in the abdomen, another's dress was badly torn and another lost a new spring hat. We have the names of these victims. There are others who were abused who also will be parties to the suit."

Clifford Wolf said Mrs. Frey had been in his employ for four years. "She is a capable woman," he said, "but recently she has been in ill health. She should have charged no check fee Saturday night. That had already been arranged."

Seven out of thirteen members of the committee tonight signed the report, while five members filed a minority report, recommending that all five Socialists be seated.

One assembly member filed a second minority report, recommending that August Claessens and Louis Waldman of New York and Charles Solomon of Kings be ousted, but Samuel Orr and Samuel A. Dewitt be seated.

COUNCIL DELAYS 'SAVE DAYLIGHT' MEASURE AGAIN

N. Y. 2 Hours Ahead; Banks Hampered.

Hope of a daylight saving law for Chicago was again deferred yesterday when the city council referred back to the judiciary committee by a vote of 47 to 16 the bill fathered by Ald. Timothy Hogan. Labor, Ald. Hogan said, had opposed certain provisions, but these would be changed and he hoped to have the measure enacted into law by the latter part of April.

New York Two Hours Ahead.

Chicago's world of finance confronts a dilemma in horology as a consequence of New York's adoption of a daylight saving law, which, plus the hour difference in central and eastern time, places this city two hours behind Wall street.

Bankers' hours here will have to be altered, it is agreed (unless New York repeals its daylight saving law), because synchronization is essential in the intimate financial relationships of the two cities. When Chicago banks now open their doors at 9 o'clock it is 11 in New York.

May Open Earlier.

"We'll have to get up earlier; that's the only solution," said James B. Forgan, president of the First National bank. "We cannot hope to transact business successfully with so great a difference in time. I imagine our banks will advance their opening hour to 8 o'clock. Seven, of course, is too early."

Similar opinion was expressed by Ralph Van Vechten, vice president of the Continental and Commercial National bank.

"I think our employees would welcome the change," he said, "and I hope it may be made effective for the entire city."

REPEAL NEW YORK LAW.

Albany, N. Y., March 29.—[Special.]—By a bare majority the senate late tonight passed the Fowler bill, repealing the daylight saving law, in response to telegrams from the farmers' leaders. Every member of the senate was present and voting. The vote on the bill stood 26 to 25.

The measure as passed has been amended so as to permit cities and villages by ordinance to provide for daylight saving within such localities.

The assembly a week ago defeated the Betts bill, identical with the Fowler bill. Assemblyman Betts of Wayne, sponsor for the assembly measure, made a motion to reconsider the vote.

POLES MAY ASK NATIONS LEAGUE TO HELP ARMIES

Washington, D. C., March 29.—Poland will call upon the league of nations for allied reinforcements, it was said at the Polish legation here today, if bolshevik armies threaten to break the Polish eastern lines of defense.

While France is understood to have given tacit promises of military cooperation, the changed situation in Germany has made the extent of French aid doubtful, it was said.

Unless the bolshevik western front was materially strengthened, Maj. Gen. Brynk, Polish military attaché, declared, the present Polish regular force could hold its own.

The southern Russia by the bolshevik armies, however, he said, made possible the strong reinforcement of the bolshevik western armies.

LABOR TICKETS WIN IN IOWA

Clinton, Ia., March 29.—Labor party candidates were elected to all city offices except two today in a landslide. Harry W. Cowles is the new mayor.

Des Moines and Sioux City Results.

Des Moines, Ia., March 29.—Complete unofficial returns from today's city election in Des Moines showed H. H. Barton was elected mayor. His vote was 2,700, while his opponent, John Gibson, received 2,656. With unofficial returns in from every voting precinct in Sioux City, Wallace M. Short was re-elected mayor today over J. A. Tiedeman by 9 majority. Mayor Short led the labor ticket.

Maynard, Flying Parson, Lost in the Mountains

Asheville, N. C., March 29.—[Special.]—Unable to locate Asheville after two unsuccessful attempts, the first time overshooting the city by forty miles, Lieut. B. W. Maynard, "the flying parson," tonight is lost in the mountains of western North Carolina.

Prince of Wales Will Reach Panama Today

Panama, March 29.—The prince of Wales is expected to arrive at Cristobal aboard the British cruiser Renown at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

GARBAGE FORCE QUILTS; BUDGET SNARL GROWS

All-Night Session of Council Vain.

BULLETIN.

At 3 a. m. Ald. Lyle moved to pass the original finance committee budget, which totals $126,000,000, and is within the estimated revenues, but carries no pay increases.

Passage of this budget probably would produce an epidemic of strikes.

"The finance committee has blundered and by passing the original budget the responsibility would rest where it belongs," said Ald. Lyle.

Paralysis of city business, threatened for weeks, is scheduled to become a fact this morning.

"Nearly 1,000 clerks, stenographers, and bookkeepers employed in the city hall and other municipal offices struck at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Members of their union were ordered to picket the city hall this morning."

In addition 156 garbage handlers went out for more pay, shutting down the municipal garbage reduction plant. Garbage collectors will collect no garbage today, as the loading platforms at the plant are full to overflowing and there are no men to handle it. The garbage handlers have been receiving $4 a day. The council finance committee granted them $4.40. They want $5.00.

Council Refuses $300 Raise.

At 5:30 o'clock last night the city council refused to grant the striking clerks, stenographers, and bookkeepers their demands—$300 more for all four grades—and confirmed the finance committee's report stating that the city has increased from $60 to 100 per cent since 1915. If we get the $300 flat increase we ask we will have received 29 per cent since 1915."

Ald. Mulcahy did not know the clerks were already on strike when he made the motion in the council to grant their full demands late in the afternoon.

'Let 'Em Strike,' Aldermen Cry.

"They are going on strike," he said. "They will sit up the city hall. On their present salaries they can't pay their high rents."

"We've given them 12 per cent. Let 'em strike," several aldermen shouted. Ald. Byrne seconded the Mulcahy motion. There were cheers from the galleries and a few hisses when Ald. Cermak asked that the galleries be cleared "to make sure that the pressure of the galleries doesn't overrule the budget and make impossible increases fair to all." By a vote of 22 to 14 Ald. Cermak's suggestion was accepted and policemen cleared the galleries of several hundred employees.

In executive session Ald. Mulcahy's motion was voted down almost unanimously without a roll call.

Three Left in Health Bureau.

While the council was acting the clerks decided to permit three of their number to remain on duty in the health department to make out birth and death certificates and receive contagious disease reports.

At their meeting at Colonial hall, 520 West Randolph street, they confirmed the strike order, which was voted last week, by a vote of 207 to 15. There are 957 members of the union.

Forecasting the possibility of many strikes in connection with the 1920 budget, which it is considering, the council at the afternoon session, passed a resolution presented by Ald. Koster and Tonia directing Mayor Thompson to appoint an arbitration commission.

The commission is to consist of Chairman John A. Richter and four members of the finance committee, President Coffin of the civil service commission, Corporation Counsel Etzelson and the head of the department affected by the strike.

A Difference of $8.

At an evening session which lasted far into the night, the council refused to grant the policemen more than the $192 increase for patrolmen approved by the finance committee.

"They tell me that 600 men will resign," said Michael O'Connor, head of the patrolman's organization, who had waited with Eugene H. Harwan, the firemen's representative, all day in the council corridor.

"The council has granted $1,992 a year. We wanted at least $2,000. We would have accepted that."

Horgan said he would call a meeting of his men today to decide what action will be taken.

$5,000,000 Over Appropriated.

At the evening session, the council added $210,786 to the budget—a budget which Ald. Richard asserts, is already $5,000,000 over appropriated. Some of the additions were:

Motion of Ald. Toman increasing Chief of Police Garrity's salary from $8,000 to $10,000, five voice vote.

Motion of Ald. L. B. Anderson adding $141,584 for eighty-one patrolmen and twenty-one detectives whose places are now vacant and for whom the finance committee had made no provision.

Motion of Ald. L. B. Anderson increasing Mayor Thompson's contingent fund from $25,000 to $50,000. Yeas, 32; nays, 21.

Motion of Ald. Crowe, increasing salary of Louis Plouffe, docket clerk in the prosecuting attorney's office, from $1,740 to $2,400, five voice vote.

Motion increasing the salary of City Real Estate Agent Joseph Peacock from $3,600 to $4,000, five voice vote.

Motion providing for extra office help in the police department, $13,000.

Ald. Anderson, Powers, Franz and Lyle made most of the motions for the increases.

Refuse Law Department Boost.

Ald. Anderson's effort to have the law department's appropriation increased by $1,240 failed 28 to 31. A request for $15,000 more for traction and another for $45,000 more for telephone litigation was voted down 27 to 32 and 24 to 34 respectively.

Ald. Anderson argued that the law department has saved $277,000 in the last year in collecting debts due to the city.

"How much more would they have saved if they had defended suits against the city brought by employees for whom the finance committee made no appropriation?" asked Ald. Guernsey.

"About $5,000," laughed Ald. Anderson.

Cut Off Temporary Employees.

Ald. Garner attempted to have provision made for 319 temporary employees eliminated by the finance committee. His move was defeated 29 to 31.

Ald. Franz asked that all detectives be classified as sergeants of police. His motion would have increased their salaries to $2,392. He voted 29 to 30 and the motion would have cost $157,000. It was voted down.

Ald. Powers tried hard to get the police operators $1,992 a year. They get $1,600 now and were raised to $1,800 by the committee. The motion lost.

Eliminate Food Bureau.

By a vote of 28 to 22 the finance committee's recommendation that the city food bureau be eliminated was sustained. Ald. Lyle and Powers led in the debate for the bureau, but the Democrats lined up solidly against it in view of City Food Director Poley's many attacks on District Attorney Charles F. Clyne.

The aldermen voted to increase the salary of Joseph Siman, superintendent of the bureau, from $3,600 to $4,000 a year, but this, with other increases, may be voted down later when the council ceases to sit as a committee of the whole and resumes regular session.

Water Engineers Make Threat.

P. S. Combs, city engineer, announced yesterday that the 400 pumping station engineers have announced that they will strike unless the council grants them increases amounting to 20 per cent. If they strike the water supply would be threatened.

"They have promised to give me five days' notice," said Mr. Combs.

The council will continue its work on the budget today.

An hour of parliamentary wrangling delayed the budget making while half a dozen aldermen tried to make the finance committee take the blame for adding $4,000,000 of "paper revenue" to the budget.

On this point Ald. Guernsey asked: "Where are you going to get this $4,000,000?"

"The city will be entirely out of funds by next September if these increases are granted,"

"$4,000,000 in Blue Sky."

Ald. Richard, chairman of the finance committee, said he could not tell where the money is coming from.

"The $4,000,000 we have added in pay increases is blue sky and every dollar you add to it makes it bluer yet," said Ald. Fitz.

Fully 500 employees jammed the council chamber today to see the expected $4,000,000 deficit this fall the council passed eight new license ordinances. In most cases graded as to fees according to the number of employees of the licensed firm, as follows:

Employment agencies, from $5 to $75 a year.

Manufacturers of carbonated waters, $100 and $25 for each vehicle employed.

Manufacturing confectioners, $5 to $500 a year.

Ice dealers—Manufacturers, $150; team track dealers, $50; retail dealers, $10 for each wagon.

Manufacturers of women's and children's wear, $5 to $200 a year.

Grain elevators, $200 a year.

Cermak Sees $2,000,000 Revenue.

The council also passed a blanket license ordinance covering all places "where goods or products are manufactured, made, finished, altered, repaired, cleaned, or assorted." The ordinance exempts foods from its operation, and Ald. Cermak says that if the courts uphold the city's right to pass it $2,000,000 will be added to the annual revenue.

It provides for license fees ranging from $5 for factories with less than three employees to $200 for those with more than 175.

RUHRREDS CALL ON THE ALLIES TO SEND IN TROOPS

Balk at Ultimatum of the Ebert Regime.

ROTTERDAM, March 29.—Extremists at Danzig have sent an ultimatum to Sir Reginald Tower, British commissioner there, demanding the removal of troops and threatening a general strike if their demands are not complied with according to a dispatch to the Nieuw Rotterdamse Courant from Hamburg. Sir Reginald is said to have embarked his troops on an English warship in the harbor. There is a strong bolshevik movement in Danzig, according to reports.

BERLIN, March 29.—The Vorwarts reports that Gen. von Loevenfeld, at the head of a naval brigade, has entered the Ruhr region to fight the insurgents there.

ESSEN, March 29.—[By the Associated Press.] Three workmen's delegates are leaving for Cologne to ask the allied representatives to come to the Ruhr and send troops into the district.

There was some perplexity at a secret meeting of the workmen today over the course to be pursued. After a debate the plan of sending delegates to Muenster to negotiate the difficulties with the Ebert government was voted down.

A military representative then told the meeting that the allies had offered to mediate.

The leaders of the reactionary movement say the surrender of their arms means their death warrants.

Danzig, March 29.—[By the Associated Press.] The ultimatum of the government, which the Reds will not heed, demands that the Ebert regime be recognized absolutely. It also demands disarmament of the Red army and civilians, the immediate dissolution of the Regiment, and the release of its prisoners and the restoration of the regular authorities to power.

The ultimatum further declares that if the Reds balk at the conditions the government troops will march into the Ruhr district.

At Duisburg posters have been hung reiterating the threat to dynamite the mines if the reichswahr advances.

The government at Berlin has announced a repulse of the Red army before Wesel and south of Muenster.

Mueller to Use "Iron Broom."

BERLIN, March 29.—[By the Associated Press.] Chancellor Mueller in a speech outlining his program told the Reichstag today that "the reactionary elements in the army will be swept away with an iron broom."

The new chancellor devoted half of his speech to consideration of the recent revolution.

No quarter will be shown to the military leaders who violated their oath, said the chancellor. The terms of the peace treaty were responsible for the reactionary sentiment still prevailing in many quarters in Germany, he added.

The chancellor asserted the government would oppose the French demand for allied occupation of Frankfurt, Darmstadt, and other cities in return for the privilege of sending German troops into the neutral zone.

Arrest Kappist Leaders.

Proceedings against supporters of the movement led by Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, in the reactionary revolt of March 3, have been begun by the government. Former Under Secretary of State Falkenhausen has been arrested at Brandenburg-Havel and proceedings have been commenced at Kiel against Admiral von Leventow.

Former governor of Kiel, who is under arrest. Major von Winterfeld and other officers who were implicated in the revolt are also made defendants by the government. Rewards up to 10,000 marks have been offered for information leading to the arrest of other officers who have fled.

Labor Leader Dissatisfied.

One of the leaders of the Majority Socialist party, asked by the correspondent as to whether Carl Rudolph Legien, president of the German Federation of Trade Unions had made a definite peace with the government, said:

"Legien is anything but satisfied with the reconstructed cabinet."

The newly organized ministry, for Prussia, it was announced today, is composed as follows:

HERR BRAUN, premier and minister of agriculture.

HERR SEVERING, minister of the interior.

HERR HAENISCH, minister of education.

HERR LUDEMAN, minister of finance.

HERR OESER, minister of public works.

HERR FISCHBECK, minister of trade.

HERR STEIGERWALD, minister of people's welfare.

HERR ZEHNHOF, minister of justice.

Four of the ministers are Social Democrats, two are Democrats, and two are members of the Center party.

BERLIN, March 29.—Herr Ernest Daeumig, the world's most probable Lenin No. 2, is leader of the Independent Socialist party, which has a representation of twenty-two members in the present national assembly.

Herr Daeumig, in the midst of the Kapp coup, signed his name to the posters and proclamations calling for a "proletariat uprising" against the strength of von Loevenfeld.

No Doubt About Russ Aid.

There is no doubt about the movement being supported by Russian bolshevism, but the Germans say there is a difference between their plan of government and the soviet, where representation in the assembly is not based on classification. Daeumig's project gives representation in the government only to the representatives of the various workers—a classification into which it proposed to divide all the people.

Although an avowed pacifist, Herr Daeumig impressed one as a fighting man.

His Cure for All.

"The last fifteen months of war and revolution have entirely destroyed the old economic life of Germany," Herr Daeumig said. "Nothing of the old structure remains, consequently none of the old measures of resuscitation can be used effectively on our affairs to make them healthy."

"Only the solidarity of labor put down the Kapp-Von Loevenfeld revolution in concert by means of the general strike."

The proletariat did not execute a general strike against Kapp for the purpose of saving Ebert or the government. But the workers were quick to recognize that the military monarchist movement was the first danger. Our first danger gone, it is our obligation

RADICALS WAIT FOR GIANT GUNS TO TAKE WESEL

Tribune Man Finds the Morale Good.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [By Special Cable.]

Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.

DUISBURG, March 28, via Berlin, March 29.—The Red army of the Ruhr is prepared to fight to the last man until all the troops of the present German government are disbanded.

This is the sentiment I have encountered on every hand during an eighteen hour automobile inspection throughout the entire Red zone.

I have talked with men in the ranks and the army leaders themselves. All seem unanimous.

Trained Officers Direct.

The army is being directed by a general staff composed of trained Prussian officers, but the real authority is vested in the workers. The name of the commander-in-chief of the army is withheld from me, and it is not known generally in the zone.

The army is in excellent spirits and high morale. Its equipment is good. I was well treated by both officers and men. They asked me through Fritz Tarnum to make known to the allies that the proletariat in the Ruhr district holds no ill will toward the allies, but simply desires to destroy the last remnant of German militarism.

Among the Red troops are wild stories about atrocities committed by the German government troops. The Reds still call the government soldiers "Noske men," not knowing of Noske's resignation as defense minister.

The best estimate I could obtain on the strength of the army is 100,000 men, but believe the army's real strength is much less.

Driven From Wesel.

This morning I was within several hundred meters of Wesel with the Red forces. We were caught by grenade fire and forced to retire. Government troops are stoutly defending the town.

The machine gun fire is intense.

We went to Friedrichsfeld, which was attacked by government troops at 11 o'clock this morning. Government troops shelled the town and the roads leading into it. Machine gun barrages cut the village off from its neighbor nearest on the south. The Reds were forced to retire from the town, which the government troops immediately occupied.

BERLIN, March 29.—German army officers specializing in the Ruhr situation say the entire district now in the hands of the Reds will have to be mopped up by troops before the government can regain control.

"A government ultimatum will have no effect," said Lieut. Col. Hasse, whom Minister Gessler sent to the meeting of the national assembly today to answer questions by the members concerning the situation, "because the radical leaders in Essen have sent us an ultimatum, and there is no doubt the government will be compelled to act immediately. A few days later it would be too late."

FIGHTING IN BERLIN

The battle troops under Gen. von Loevenfeld met with opposition by some of the Ebert forces, which remained loyal, and the Spartacists. The placing of barbed wire entanglements and barricades on the main thoroughfares leading to the government buildings and other important streets in Berlin was contested at various points and led to some fighting.

U. S. SCHOOLS IN TURKEY TARGET OF ALIEN ENVY

French Seeking to Install Their Own Teachers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 23.—[By the Associated Press.]—The future of American schools in Turkey, especially Syria, is causing much uneasiness in American official and educational circles here. The French have indicated that one French instructor should be placed in each institution, and this is regarded as the first step in a probable movement by the French for domination in the schools.

There are seventy American schools in Syria. These represent an investment of more than $2,000,000, all of which was subscribed by Americans, independent of the United States government's assistance.

10,000 Study American.

They have more than 10,000 persons in attendance. The largest school is Beirut college, which is equal in grade to an American university.

There are American schools at Aleppo, Damascus, Aintab, Adana, Marash, and many other places in territory which the French desire to control. The French schools in Syria virtually all are subsidized by the French government.

Big Schools in Capital.

American educational interests are especially large in Constantinople, where Robert College and the Constantinople Woman's college are the leading educational institutions of Turkey.

Through the effort of Theodore Roosevelt, the late John Hay, American secretary of state, and John G. A. Leishman, former minister to Turkey, the rights of American educational concessions were specifically recognized by the subtitle ports in an imperial decree issued in 1907. This decree guaranteed them property rights and freedom from interference on the part of the Turkish government.

'ALLIES WANT TO O. K. OR VETO U. S. OWN PEACE PLAN'

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.] [Copyright: 1920.]

PARIS, March 29.—Clemenceau's paper, L'Homme Libre, says today that if America negotiates a separate peace with Germany the terms should be submitted to the allies for approval or veto.

President Wilson, the newspaper says, continues to exercise the veto power over the allied plans. Acceptance of the terms by the allies, the natural corollary is that the allies have the same right of review over German-American negotiations in which their interests may be involved in the present allied negotiations.

Suddenly we could not do so. But we had to have it.

That winter lenses for all optical instruments were being made of American optical glass and—100% efficient.

committee of the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross at a meeting at which the Chicago Association of Commerce was represented by R. D. Beach, secretary. The committee estimated that between $75,000 and $100,000 will be necessary to carry on the work. It was also agreed to administer any further funds raised for that purpose with the proviso that the Red Cross be at liberty to spend the money as it sees fit. Marquis Eaton, chairman of the committee, said no general appeal for funds will be made by the Chicago chapter.

Elgin Digs Out of Debris

At Elgin, where seven were killed and a property loss of about $2,000,000 inflicted, Mayor A. E. Price called a meeting to be held at noon, but by 12 o'clock the business district of the city had succeeded so well in digging itself from the ruins that the meeting was called off.

"I am not going to appeal for any outside help," Mayor Price said. "Every man and boy in town has turned out to help us and we feel that Elgin will be able to care for herself."

Relief organizations were established in all of the storm swept districts by the territorial headquarters of the Salvation Army and the field officers in charge were given blanket authority to expend all the money necessary for food, clothing, blankets, and medical supplies required by the refugees.

Hundreds of carpenters went to work in Elgin. Maywood, Melrose Park, Irving Park, and in the north shore towns were repaired. Store windows were boarded up, house windows and roofs that had been partially destroyed were sealed up.

By nightfall all refugees had been placed in homes. From the hospitals came the word that most of the patients were on the road to recovery. But one death was reported during the day in the entire Chicago district. So is Illinois recovering with almost miraculous rapidity from a disaster that was as fatal and destroying in comparison as the German march through Belgium.

South Calls for Aid.
In other sections of the storm swept area rehabilitation seems more difficult. In Alexander City, Ala., five white persons and six Negroes were killed. Damage to houses and live stock was estimated at $30,000. Wire communication in the storm swept districts has not been established and a call for medical help came with a plea for money and food.

In the state of Georgia thirty-eight persons were killed by the storm. 300 injured, and thousands rendered homeless. Many of the smaller towns are cut off from the rest of the world and the Red Cross workers are meeting almost every difficulty that nature can place in the way of rescue work. A call for money was sent out through the entire state.

At La Grange, Ga., thirty-six persons were killed and nearly 300 injured. A property loss of nearly $1,000,000 is estimated at La Grange and West Point. Suffering at West Point was increased by flood conditions.

Reports from Michigan place the death toll at eleven, with more than two score injured. In the rural districts swept by the storm a tangled mass of leveled fences, outbuildings, greenhouses, unroofed barns, and uprooted trees were left in the wake of the tornado.

In Indiana thirty-six persons were killed. The most accurate reports available indicated that the storm was at its worst in Jay and Allen counties, where ten and nine persons, respectively, were killed. Fort Wayne hospitals are reported to be caring for twenty-five victims of the windstorm. Several are expected to die.

Six counties were struck by the storm. Local organizations in the towns nearest the storm centers are giving every relief possible. Reports of complete rating of several villages are being investigated. There is much suffering from the cold. Rescue parties are finding roads impassable. In Nebraska wire service was paralyzed, several thousand telegraph poles being leveled by the winds. In South Dakota rain, wind, and hail crippled wire service, but no one was seriously injured.

HOW SCIENCE EXPLAINS THE "DEATH WIND"

Tornado Smallest of Cyclone Family.

Somewhere in Alaska a cold wind blew up late last week and wandered southeast over British Columbia into the United States. In southeastern Nebraska it blew over a warm, low lying wind from Arizona and New Mexico that was starting northeast. The warm wind tried to rise above the cold breeze, as was natural, but the velocities of the two set up a struggle. A gyrating, whirling motion was set up. The aerial whirlpool grew in intensity and early Sunday morning a full fledged tornado swept past Sioux City, Ia., headed northeast. Shortly after noon Sunday it arrived in the environs of Chicago, there to wreak its havoc, and by evening had reached Lake Superior.

Sunday's tornado was typical of that most diminutive yet most violent and destructive of storms. It is a small storm within what meteorologists call an extratropical cyclone, and usually originates from 200 to 800 miles from the center of the larger disturbance. An extratropical cyclone is simply a vast wind center marked on weather maps as "low" areas.

Marked by Funnel.
The chief characteristic of the tornado is the black, funnel shaped mass of low hanging masses of dark clouds, whirling and dancing as it carries destruction in its wake. It is always associated with violent thunder showers and is usually accompanied by hail, squall winds, and excessive thunder and lightning. It almost always comes during the warm months of the year and the hottest part of the day. It is usually less than 1,000 feet in diameter and the average speed with which it covers the ground is fifty miles an hour, resulting in its passing a given point in a half minute. The whirling velocity of a tornado has never been accurately measured, but it has been estimated at from 200 to 500 miles an hour.

Vacuum Causes Destruction.
The whirling motion of a tornado sets up a vacuum or "air hole" within itself and it is one theory that the destruction is wrought when this core passes over an object. The core nullifies the air pressure around the object, such as a house, and the air pressure within the house causes it to burst open just as deep sea fishes explode when brought to the surface of the water because of reduced outside pressure of the air.

The tornado Sunday was unusual in that it struck a wooded district, came so early in the year, and occurred near a large body of water. Tornadoes prefer flat, deforested areas, such as the Mississippi valley, and rarely visit territories adjacent to large lakes. The air above a large body of water is usually of a uniform temperature, tending to prevent or dissipate storms such as the tornado.

How Thunder Storms Differ.
The thunder storm is the exact opposite of a tornado. The familiar storm rolls over and over, its axis horizontal to the earth and its vacuum without ability to harm.

The accompanying diagram also shows what scientists term the "anti-cyclone." The effects on the earth's surface are such as were experienced along the lake shore last Sunday—squalls of rain, hail, and violent unstable winds.

SENATE STAGES YEARLY BATTLE OF MAIL TUBES

Washington, D. C., March 29.—(Special.)—The senate staged its annual fight over the pneumatic tube systems in Chicago, New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, and St. Louis today, and decided to have another investigation to determine whether the tubes shall be maintained in the mail service.

A provision was adopted allowing the property and equipment of the tube companies to remain in the post offices at Chicago, New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, and St. Louis until June 30, 1921, or until the space they now occupy is actually needed for postoffice purposes. The object of this measure is to prevent the dismantling of the tube systems by the post office department before the new investigation can be completed.

The section creating a commission to investigate the tube service was adopted, 29 to 12.

FRANCE SEEKS TO WIN AMERICA BACK TO EUROPE

Look to Such Development After Next March.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(By Special Cable.)
PARIS, March 29.—Despite an apparent French government attitude of resignation toward the treaty situation in America, there is an increasing active spirit in the French senate for immediate formulation and public announcement of some French policy to bring America back into the European fold after next March.

The French senate attitude is that some such action must be taken to forestall the extreme danger of a separate peace between America and Germany. This was proven conclusively following a meeting of the foreign affairs committee of the French senate. The committee met to discuss an appropriation for renewal of diplomatic relations with the Vatican, but adjourned without taking any action, declaring there were far more important issues than this before the senate, notably "our relations with America and the German situation."

Want U. S. Hurried Up.
M. Deleaves, president of the committee, was instructed to take the matter up with the president of the senate immediately for a statement from the government on its policy toward America. The attitude in certain sections of the French senate is that Ambassador Jusserand should redouble his previously reported efforts with Republicans in Washington to put the treaty through immediately with reservations.

But in other quarters it is believed this policy of defiance of Mr. Wilson would work more harm than good and that some plan should be adopted for immediate ratification of the treaty with Lodge reservations, but with proviso clauses, leaving the ultimate fate of the reservations up to the American electorate in the presidential campaign. This, it is pointed out, should place Mr. Wilson under the necessity of providing for participation by America in European reconstruction, and would obviate the necessity of a separate German-American peace.

Nitti Speech Awakens Hopes.
Sig. Nitti's sensational speech in Rome, calling for general friendly help and cooperation by the allies toward Russia and Germany for "necessary" reconstruction of these countries, has increased the desire of the French to get America back into active deliberations in the supreme council.

French officials still is unalterably opposed to any recognition of the bolsheviks politically or to any "friendly or lenient" dealings with Germany.

ONLY RUSSIANS RESISTED REDS AT NOVOROSSISK

NOVOROSSISK, March 28.—(Delayed.)—Occupation of this city by bolshevik forces occurred Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

One thousand of Gen. Denikine's volunteer soldiers went over to the soviet side, and most of the remainder went on board ship and departed for Crimea with Denikine.

The only ships which resisted occupation of the city by the bolsheviks were Russian, which fired a few shells at the soviet forces.

The United States cruiser Galveston was the last warship to leave the harbor and was not fired upon, although British and French warships were under fire from bolshevik machine guns while departing.

GOLDEN CARAVAN TREKS THROUGH STREETS OF N. Y.

New York, March 29.—An armed caravan moved through New York's financial district today with a treasure of ten tons of gold in rough, metal bound boxes, loaded on five two horse trucks. The gold, valued at $9,300,000, arrived from England on the steamship Lapland yesterday and was taken to the subtreasury in Wall Street.

Moving along the caravan's route were 200 armed men, in plain clothes, and other armed men rode on the trucks. Few pedestrians knew what the van's contained.

An elaborate checking system accounted for each box in the shipment, and two boxes contained chemicals, it was said, with which the gold would be tested.

WASHINGTON NEWS — IN BRIEF —

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
(Washington Bureau of The Tribune.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.

PRESIDENT WILSON is expected shortly to reveal his views on the German peace treaty and his attitude toward further measures to reestablish peace. In response to an appeal presented to him today by a number of distinguished Americans.

Before leaving today to stomp Michigan for Senator Johnson, Senator Borah of Idaho made public a telegram he had sent to Gen. Wood telling the general that unless he stopped the extravagant expenditures being made in his behalf he would "bring disgrace upon himself, his party, and his country."

The senate decided today to order another investigation of the pneumatic tube mail systems in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Brooklyn, and St. Louis.

TAX-FREE Liberty bonds would sell at par on the market, in the opinion of Representative Fordney of Michigan, chairman of the house ways and means committee. Mr. Fordney favors the elimination of tax provisions in the present Liberty bond acts.

CHINA TO TAKE EAST RAILROAD FROM JAP ARMY

President in Interview Shows Independence.

BY FRAZIER HUNT.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

(Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.)
PEKING, March 29.—[Delayed.]—China not only has no intention of permitting Japan to police northern Manchuria or Japanese troops to grab the Chinese Eastern railroad, but is determined to take over the railroad itself and make peace with the Bolsheviks.

President Hsu Shih-chang, in an interview, showed this is China's plan in dealing with the Manchurian-Siberian-Japanese problem. It proves, although certain Chinese officials and some of the military are pro-Japanese, that the president is awake to the dangers of Japan's secret policy in Siberia and Manchuria.

"The Sino-Japanese pact is needed no longer," the president said. "In the summer of 1918 the pact was formed as a measure against German war prisoners in Siberia. When the danger was over the pact was continued on account of the fight on the Bolsheviks. But the allies have withdrawn their troops from Siberia. China does not fear Siberian radicalism. So it is not necessary to continue the pact. It is far from our idea to interfere in any way in the internal affairs of Siberia."

Danger in Pact.
This statement is important on account of the possibilities of Japan using the Sino-Jap pact to force China against Siberia, creating a situation giving justification to Japan's planting of troops in Manchuria in order to protect China from bolshevism. But even more important was the president's statement on the Chinese Eastern railway.

"China already has taken steps that will insure China the sovereign right of protecting the railroad in Manchuria with its own troops," he announced. "We propose gradually to take over the road ourselves, being careful to protect Russian investors. We are more than justified in taking the railroad into our complete ownership and management."

The president intimated China would not need the help of Japan in this direction. Throughout the whole interview the president showed clearly he understood the possibilities of danger that Japan would attempt to fill Manchuria with Japanese troops later under the plea of the military necessity of taking the railroad.

Wait Lamont's Arrival.
Regarding the new consortium, which many observers believe offers the only lasting solution of the problem of world help for China, the president said that China is looking forward to T. W. Lamont's visit with great interest because it will be possible to discuss directly many points of the dispute with the financiers here.

Tribune special cables from Tokio tell of the arrival and visit of Mr. Lamont, who is a member of Morgan & Co., on his way to China.
"China is fully in accord with the general plan of the consortium," the president said. "We are willing to carry out the general provisions of the four power group, including the paying off and disbandment of the greater part of the army. The plan is to disband all the provisional troops, excepting about 400,000, approximately the same number that China had four years ago.

"We hope eventually to place full military power in the hands of the central government with all military expense borne by external revenue."

Shantung a World Question.
Regarding direct negotiation with Japan over Shantung the president intimated since it was a question interesting to all nations, consequently it should be referred to the league of nations. He refused to make a direct answer, but he showed there was little likelihood of the Chinese accepting the proposal of Japan for direct negotiations.

High hopes of early peace between North and South China are held by the president.
"The new peace conference is planned to be held in Shanghai in the near future," he said. "With a united China all will be able to offer a single front to any aggressions against China."

bitterly criticized the English government in Ireland, which he called "a government by imprisonment, deportation, and raid. The surest way to go to the prisons is to be elected to public office by the people of Ireland. This bill is accepted by a few Irishmen, approved by none."

In reply to a question as to what the Labor party would do, Mr. Clynes said: "We'd grant the widest measure of self-government compatible with unity of the empire and safety of the United Kingdom, the fullest financial liberty subject to Ireland's fair contribution to the empire's expenses, adequate protection for Ulster, Ireland to determine its own constitution within these restrictions, and ceasing ruling by force now, not next year, drop coercion and release the political prisoners."

Cecil and America.
Lord Robert Cecil also opposed the bill on the ground that what is needed is a strict enforcement of the law coupled with beneficent legislation.

"We are told, if we pass this bill, we will conciliate American opinion. I doubt very much if you will advance far unless you carry Irish opinion. I also doubt if our policy is purely a domestic matter and should be dictated by what any one thinks across the water. The way to win friendship and respect of the American people—not speaking of politicians or that strange body, the senate—is to do the right thing and govern justly, fairly, firmly."

Two motions for the rejection of the bill have been prepared, one by the Labor party and the other by Prime Minister Asquith. The speaker has given precedence to the former. Interest, however, centers upon the proceedings expected tomorrow, when Mr. Asquith will speak against the bill and will be answered by Prime Minister Lloyd George.

Deportations Explained.
The reason persons deported from Ireland are not brought to trial is because it is "impossible to get the necessary evidence" as the result of terrorism and intimidations in Ireland.

Prime Minister Lloyd George declared the commons in answer to a question. The prime minister said the government would not promise to cease deportations from Ireland during the discussions of the Irish home rule bill. The government is taking elaborate precautions to quell an Easter outbreak in Ireland. The war office has sent four battalions of British troops to "disturbed areas overseas."

New Irish Commander.
Maj. Gen. Sir Nevill Macready, now chief commissioner of the London metropolitan police, has been appointed military commander in chief in Ireland and will assume the duties immediately, superseding Gen. Shaw, who has failed to maintain order. Macready is one of the most competent soldier-administrators the British service has seen and has a long record of difficult jobs efficiently performed.

For the last seventeen years he has been called on when a difficult labor situation or civil revolt threatened and he always has succeeded in settling them without bloodshed by his firmness and tact.

He was sent to Ireland to restore military discipline after the Curragh mutiny, and to Belfast, when Sir Edward Carson's Ulster rebellion threatened. He also served at the Balfour, Manchester, and Hull labor riots. His last job was the reorganization of the London police, when they were utterly demoralized two years ago. Sir Nevill is of Irish descent, and is a Catholic.

Italy Plans 420,000 Army to Guard Nation in Future

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

(By Special Correspondence.)

ROME, Feb. 25.—Italy is forging ahead with plans to reorganize her peace time army on a more extensive scale than ever, despite the uncertainty of the situation in the Adriatic. There is soon to be presented to Italian legislators a comprehensive program prepared by the minister of war and the general staff, which if adopted, will provide Italy with a standing army of 300,000 men.

In calling for the proposed army the minister of war, Count Alberto Albricci, a veteran soldier and tactician, has added 120,000 to the Italian peace time strength before the war.

Tip to United States.
American legislators averse to a preparedness program for America might do well to consider the military program Italy is outlining for the halcyon days of peace. Service with the colors is not termed by anything as polite as universal service over here. The average Italian youth called to the colors does not receive the equipment de luxe or the consideration for his well-fare which will certainly be the case if universal service is adopted in America. But the Italians know that they must maintain such a system if their national existence is to continue.

Full Program Secret.
Naturally the war office is not divulging the program in its complete details. Broadly the reorganized army will consist of 420,000 men. Every young man will be required to serve eight months. At the end of that time, if he be not considered an average soldier, he is turned back to camp until such time as he may be able to grasp the fundamentals.

It will be asked: "What is Italy doing in the way of developing aviation, tank service, gas and similar highly specialized arts of killing?" Italian officials are quite frank concerning aviation and tanks. Regarding the gas, they are more reticent. Extensive aviation plans are underway.

Aviation has been divided into two branches, commercial and military. Both may be consolidated at a moment's notice in time of war. Practically all commercial aviators today are former wartime flyers.

'KING FEISEL OF SYRIA' NEW THORN IN ALLIES' SIDE

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]

(Copyright: 1920.)

PARIS, March 29.—Since Capt. D'Annunzio led his army into Fiume last September no more promising trouble maker has loomed than Emir Feisel, newly made "king of Syria," who stands on a platform of the complete independence of his country.

That is strictly not in accord with the allied plans in Asia Minor. It contravenes the private allied understandings about Turkey and it plays havoc with the terms of the about to be born Turkish treaty.

Both France and England have a considerable number of troops in Syria, which "His Majesty" Feisel wishes sent home in the immediate future. The success of "King" Feisel's plans would upset the arrangements for four or five zones of influence and would simply wipe the proposed Zion nation off his map.

SECOND LARGEST OFFICE BUILDING IN U. S. FOR BANK

Will Face on Three Streets in the Loop.

Within two years Chicago will possess the second largest and one of the finest office buildings in the United States. It will be the home of the reorganized Merchants' Loan and Trust company, the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, and the Corn Exchange National bank. This banking combination, which will be one of the largest west of New York, will assume the name of the Illinois Merchants' bank when it occupies its new home.

The construction of the great building, which will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000,000, will be an immediate result of the city ordinance restoring the building limit to 260 feet in height.

The structure will front on three of the principal downtown thoroughfares, Jackson boulevard, La Salle and Clark streets, in the heart of the financial district. It will occupy the site of the present Illinois Trust and Savings bank combined with the site of the old Pacific hotel.

Build It in Sections.

An interesting feature in the use of the original property is the fact that the original Grand Pacific hotel, owned by the Merchants' Loan and Trust company, was partly torn down to make way for the Illinois Trust building, which in turn is to be torn down to make way for the new structure.

The new building will be built in two sections, the Clark street half first, in order to provide a home for the banks at La Salle street half to follow.

It is expected each section will take about a year to erect.

The new twenty-one story office building will be second in size only to the Equitable building in New York. The Chicago structure will occupy a lot area of 59,000 square feet, or more than one acre. Another idea of its size may be gained from the fact that it will have 1,128 exterior windows.

The Treasury Building.

The architecture of the new building, designed by Graham, Anderson, Porter & White, follows the traditions originally established with the building of the United States treasury department in Washington. In fact, the building is a copy of the treasury building in Washington, with a long unbroken colonnade running from La Salle to Clark street along Jackson boulevard. On La Salle street, a central portion of free standing columns projects from the side of the building, with a pediment above, and this feature again being in harmony with the facade of the treasury building.

The material will be stone from the walk to the crowning cornice, 260 feet above. The main cornice will be something new in Chicago, being constructed of copper decorated under the eaves with gilt and color.

The three top stories will be marked by a flat plaster treatment in harmony with the colonnade of the lower three stories, but of low relief to give simplicity of effect.

Bank's Quarters Vast.

The merged banks will occupy all of the ground and second floors, all of the main floor immediately above the ground floor, and one-half of several of the office floors immediately above the main quarters proper. The main banking rooms will extend from end to end of the property, connecting the entrances on La Salle and Clark streets.

The interior plans have been worked out to furnish in the main banking room on the second floor a hall 200 feet long, entirely unbroken by pillars. The height of this room will be fifty feet, or the equivalent of four stories of ordinary height. The length of counter space over which the banking business will be conducted measures nearly a third of a mile.

WORKING PARTNERS MUST MAKE PLEA.

The Arthur Parwell must file an answer to the report of Master in Equity Holden before April 5, according to an order signed by Judge Barrett yesterday. Master Holden recommended that Parwell go to work.

NAVY IN 1917 LIKE THE BABES IN THE WOODS, IS CLAIM

Admiral Glad British Kept Germans In.

Washington, D. C., March 29.—American submarines and many second line battleships were not in condition for war service in April, 1917, Rear Admiral A. W. Grant, then commanding the submarine forces, today told the senate committee investigating charges against the navy department's conduct of the war.

The submarines were too small, of too short cruising radius, mounted small guns, and contained peculiarly designed engines, the officer testified, while the battleships needed complete overhauling.

Admiral Grant commanded the submarine force for two years prior to the war and later commanded "battleship force one" of the Atlantic fleet with the rank of vice admiral.

Warnings, Pleadings Vain.

He testified that beginning in 1915 he had urged construction of 800 ton submarines, but received no support in the department, most of the opposition coming from the general board. Later, he said, the 800 ton boats were authorized and built.

The department was slow to consent to overhauls for the battleships of his force, although he had been instructed that the ships were to be kept in condition for battle, Admiral Grant said.

Not one of his twenty-four vessels would have remained afloat if it had received a "serious underwater blow" in August, 1917, he said, as none of them had completely water tight bulkheads at that time.

"British Saved America."

"If the German fleet had broken through the British fleet in the summer of 1917, would your force have been in condition to meet the enemy?" asked Chairman Hale.

"We would have gone out and done the best we could, but it wouldn't have been much," was the officer's reply.

In reply to a question from Senator Trammell, Democrat, Florida, the witness said that the ships of his force did go to sea and performed practically the same duty during the war as the newer vessels. He testified that he "supposed" they were as effective as the more modern ships "in this war."

Rear Admiral H. T. Mayo, commander of the Atlantic fleet during the war, now a member of the navy general board, will testify tomorrow.

Efforts to controvert testimony of Rear Admiral William B. Fletcher, that his orders regarding the convoy in which the transport Antilles was sunk were disobeyed, marked the conclusion today of the officer's cross-examination by counsel for Rear Admiral Sims, before the naval court investigating his removal from the Brest command in October, 1917.

FRANCE TO LIVE ON OWN MONEY, DEPUTIES TOLD

Finance Chief Threatens Profiteers.

PARIS, March 29.—Frederic Francois-Marsal, minister of finance, speaking in the chamber of deputies today, urged economy. He said the country must live on its own money and threaten prosecution for profiteers.

"The daily expenditure of France," he said, "was 41,000,000 francs in 1914, 5,000,000 francs in 1915, 82,000,000 francs in 1916, 104,000,000 francs in 1917, 127,000,000 francs in 1918, and 39,000,000 francs in 1919."

A member of the chamber remarked that the question of exchange was financially and economically vital for the country. In reply M. Francois-Marsal declared the member should also have said it was an international question.

Talks on Appropriations.

The minister of finance was speaking in connection with the vote for provisional appropriations for the coming quarter.

Loans, the minister said, had been raised each year from 1915 to 1918, but there had been none in 1919. He said he would give the results of the loan of 1920 as soon as he had them. "But if this is the first loan of the year, it certainly will not be the last," he added.

The minister dealt with the figures, giving the total expenses for 1920 as 50,052,000,000 francs, of which 22,000,000,000 were recoverable from Germany. This year's deficit was 8,000,000,000 francs. The treasurer's disposable amount at the Bank of France was 700,000,000 francs.

Foreign Treasuries Closed.

"Foreign treasuries are closed to us, and we cannot consider the possibility of raising an important loan abroad," said M. Francois-Marsal. "Our expenses must be compressed to the utmost possible. No loans can be issued on any terms and no taxation collected if the taxpayer feels that he is throwing his money into a bottomless abyss."

Scandalous profits have been made on which the treasury, first, and then justice must say the last word.

The minister explained the high cost of living by the inflation of paper money, the Bank of France's advances, and the issue of national defense bonds. He said that as francs multiplied in the face of continued decreased produc-

PASTOR MARSOLE ENDS CHURCH ROW BY QUITTING POST

The Rev. C. S. Marsolf resigned the pastorate of the North Chicago Presbyterian church yesterday.

The Chicago Presbytery, upon recommendation of the committee appointed to investigate the recent altercation between the church and its pastor, accepted his resignation. The judicial committee of the presbytery was instructed to investigate further.

(TRIBUNE Photo.) Marsolf, with a view to the possible deposition of the Rev. Mr. Marsolf from the ministry.

The minister was arrested a few weeks ago after a dispute over the church's peace by trying to enter the church. He had threatened to "whip" a member of the church who opposed him and had been fired by the congregation. Yesterday at the meeting of the presbytery he intimated in his address in his defense that he would resign from the ministry and follow a secular occupation.

tion the purchasing power of the franc diminished.

Resent Imports of Jam.

The deputies murmured with indignation as M. Francois-Marsal spoke of the heavy imports of jams, cakes, and coffee. He said that coal and raw materials must have preference, that expenses must be reduced to a minimum; that useless services must be suppressed, and that state employees, where they were not indispensable, must disappear. He added that Germany must fulfill its engagements to France.

"The situation certainly is serious," the minister declared, "but France has been worse and has made sacrifices infinitely more cruel than those that now are necessary."

WETS EYE COURT IN HOPE OF AN APRIL SHOWER

Supreme Tribunal Final Word Is Expected.

Washington, D. C., March 29.—A possibility that the Supreme court might pass final judgment on prohibition questions now before it by the middle of next month was seen today in the announcement that the court would be taken at conclusion of arguments on these cases, probably tomorrow, would extend to April 19 instead of April 12. The opinion was expressed by those familiar with the court's procedure that a decision might be given immediately when the court reconvenes.

Argument on both sides touching validity of the constitutional amendment and the enforcement act was presented today. The arguments in connection with the original suit brought by New Jersey as well as appeals from that state and from Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Kentucky, and Massachusetts cases will be considered at the same time.

Both Sides Present Arguments.
Ellis Root, representing Christian Polyspan, a brewer of Newark, N. J., Attorney General Thomas F. McLean of New Jersey, in opposition to a constitutional amendment, and Assistant Attorney General William L. Parsons for the government addressed the court today.

Mr. Root characterized the prohibition amendment as new legislation made under "color of an amendment" affecting personal rights. If its validity was upheld, he said, the effect would be that the court recognized in addition to the legislative power of congress and the states, a third legislative power, namely, enactment of legislation by consent of three-fourths of the states, which he said would be "a perversion not only of the word, but of the whole tone and character of the constitution."

Bill of Rights Peril.
Mr. Root further argued that the original bill of rights upon which the federal constitution was based, he said, was swept away if the amendment were sustained and laws enacted as constitutional amendments would be made superior to other laws.

Attorney General McLean contended that the amendment was legislative in nature and revolutionary in character and was not adopted by two-thirds of the membership of congress nor ratified by three-fourths of the states, giving to referendum provisions in various state constitutions.

On the government's behalf, Mr. Parsons rejected arguments made in the Rhode Island case that the question of the amendment's validity is not justiciable.

St. Louis Case Admitted.
Another prohibition case reached the court today with the filing of appeals by the St. Louis Brewing association from federal court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings brought to prevent prohibition officials from interfering with it in the manufacture of beer.

The court granted permission for the association's submission in connection with today's arguments.
Permission also was given Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, to file a brief in connection with the pending prohibition cases.

THE NEW SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

Estate of Charles R. Crane, New Minister to China, at Wood's Hole, Mass., to Be Used by President Wilson.

WILSON TO REST AT C. R. CRANE'S BAY STATE HOME

Summer White House in Woods Hole.

Washington, D. C., March 29.—President Wilson will spend the summer at Wood's Hole, Mass., where the summer White House will be established on the estate of Charles R. Crane, Chicago business man who was appointed minister to China recently.

Arrangements have been made for moving the president and his family and some of the executive offices there for at least two weeks of June and all of July and August.

The Crane estate is an extensive country place which overlooks Buzzard's bay and Vineyard sound.

Sign of Improvement.
The decision of the president to go to the summer resort is taken as further evidence of the continued improvement in health which Dr. Grayson, his personal physician, has been reporting.

Last summer, like his first in office, the president spent in Washington. Others have been spent at Cornish, N. H.

The usual staff of secretaries, clerks, stenographers and secret service men will accompany the president. Special telephone and telegraph wires will be installed, and to all practical purposes the White House will be in Wood's Hole after June 15.

It's a Delightful Spot.
Wood's Hole, Mass., March 29.—The summer residence of Charles R. Crane, where President Wilson will spend the summer, is a 150 acre estate, which covers the entire point forming the southwest tip of Cape Cod. There is a Japanese garden and artificial ponds, tennis courts, a private pier, and beach. Mr. Crane's "cottage" contains twenty rooms. There is a golf course not far from the village.

COAL STRIKE IS AVERTED; RAISE OF 27% O. K.—NOW

New York, March 29.—The scale committees of the bituminous operators and mine workers, today agreed to make the monetary provisions contained in the award of the bituminous coal commission, as affirmed by the president, become effective on April 1 and that the mines continue in operation pending the working out of a new agreement. The award provided for a wage increase of 27 per cent, which means $200,000,000 a year.

All local unions of the United Mine Workers in the central competitive fields will be notified immediately by telegram, John L. Lewis, international president of the mine workers, announced.

"This action will avoid any necessity for cessation of operations," Mr. Lewis said, "and will fully protect the public by continuing the supply of coal after April 1, pending the negotiation of a new contract."

The conference appointed a subcommittee to carry on the negotiations of a new wage contract. This committee consists of the international officers of the mine workers, and two operators and two miners from each of the four states of the central competitive field. The subcommittee, meeting daily, probably will reach an agreement by the first of next week, Mr. Lewis said tonight.

GOV. LOWDEN TO REST ON RECORD IN ILLINOIS FIGHT

Will Spend No Money in Campaign, He Says.

Gov. Lowden will make no spectacular campaign in Illinois for the presidential preference vote at the April 13 primaries.

"I shall employ neither billboards nor the advertising columns of the press to set forth any qualifications I may have," Gov. Lowden said last night in a speech at the Chatterton opera house at Springfield. "If the people of Illinois favor me for president, I earnestly hope that they will go to the polls and so express themselves."

In his speech at Springfield Gov. Lowden said:

"For more than thirty years I have lived in Illinois. The people of the state are familiar with my record. They have honored me greatly. For this I am deeply grateful. I desire their good will and approbation more than I desire any office. Whether I am president or not, I hope to spend my declining years in Illinois."

Wood to Speak Here.

Gov. Wood will make his initial speech in the Illinois campaign at the Auditorium theater on Wednesday night. While definite plans have not been announced by his Illinois managers, it is understood that he will take a special train later in the week for a speaking tour through the downstate counties. An extensive publicity campaign in his behalf is already under way.

Organization of Gen. Wood's fight in Illinois proceeded rapidly during the week. Marshall Field, manager of the county campaign for Gen. Wood, reported from the east and was at his desk at his headquarters at Hotel Sherman.

"We will be under a full head of steam by midweek," Capt. Field said.

POLITICAL NOTES

Col. Abel Davis and Benedict J. Short will address a Republican rally of the Twenty-eighth Ward Republican club in the interest of Joseph P. Haas Thursday night at Wicker Park hall, 2040 West North avenue.

W. Y. Morgan of Hutchinson and Thaddeus C. Carver of Pratt were elected Republican national convention delegates yesterday at the Seventh district convention at Dodge City, Kas. Two delegates were instructed for Wood at the Fourth Tennessee district convention at Nashville.

Six hundred members of the Illinois Woman's Lowden league were enrolled yesterday at Lowden women's headquarters at the Congress hotel at a session of the Lowden women.

"Gen. Wood's speech at the Auditorium Wednesday night will be the opening gun. Saturday we will start the noonday meetings at the Garrick theater. We expect Gov. Holcomb of New Hampshire, several other governors, and David Jayne Hill to speak during the canvass."

Wood in Michigan.

Gen. Wood was in the upper peninsula of Michigan yesterday, beginning the final week of the Michigan campaign preceding the direct primaries to be held Monday. He had to use a special train to make some of his dates. At Calumet he said:

"Men who despise the uniform are not Americans. Militarism is the cry of the fakers who caused half our deaths in France by blocking training and preparedness. That would be the verdict of those who died untrained in France because these humbugs sent them to their death."

Claim Kansas Delegation.

Wood headquarters issued a statement based upon a telegram from Fred Stanley, Republican national committeeman from Kansas and vice chairman of the Wood campaign committee, claiming that the entire twenty delegates from Kansas will be for Wood. James J. McGraw, national committeeman from Oklahoma, also vice chairman of the Wood committee, was quoted as saying that one-half of the Missouri delegation will vote for Wood. The Kansas state convention will be held tomorrow at Salina.

Gifford Pinchot has issued a statement saying that Pennsylvania undoubtedly will be for Gov. Sprout of that state for first choice for the Republican nomination for president. He says he is for Gen. Wood for second choice.

The Fifth Ward Thomas A. Doyle Women's organization will have its final session tonight at Southwest Bank building, Thirty-fifth street and Archer avenue, in the interest of the reelection of Ald. Doyle to the city council.

Edward R. Litsinger is expected to make an important statement tonight at the meeting of the Twenty-first Ward Greater Republican club at 1223 North Clark street.

Canadian Fare Advance to U. S. Points Is Canceled

Montreal, March 29.—The Canadian railway commission today ordered Canadian railway companies to cancel the 10 per cent fare increase to points in the United States. They had announced it would go into effect this morning to make up for the adverse rate of Canadian exchange in the United States.

Michigan, but in the United States. I know of no other tribunal to which to appeal to correct these practices. But it can only be effective provided the facts I state are correct.

"It is within your power to give to the people of Michigan, and other states a list of your subscribers, the amount you are expending, the amount which you did expend in South Dakota, the amount which you proposed to spend in Ohio, and Illinois.

"If you will make a statement of these facts over your signature, I will correct any erroneous statement which I have heretofore made. The material which is coming from South Dakota, Illinois, and Ohio, convinces me that I was modest in my statements.

Urges Wood 'Get Busy.'

"It is up to you as a soldier and a man to come out boldly and meet these facts, and either show the public that they are unfounded, or else repudiate the men who have manifested their determination to control the national convention through the use of money."

William Gibbs McAdoo today wrote Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, Democrat, endorsing Senator Borah's bill to limit primary campaign expenditures and requiring publicity of contributions.

Gen. Wood's Washington campaign managers declared today that with delegates chosen from only nineteen states their candidate has more than one-third of the votes necessary to nominate him in the Chicago convention. Senator Moses said there were 171 delegates committed to the Wood cause.

BORAH CARRIES FIGHT ON WOOD INTO MICHIGAN

Calls on General to Tell Who Gave Him Fund.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] Washington, D. C., March 29.—[Special.]—Senator Borah of Idaho left today for Detroit to carry his fight against Gen. Leonard Wood directly to the voters of Michigan, where the first big test of strength will take place next Monday.

Before leaving Senator Borah gave out a telegram he had sent to Gen. Wood at Chicago in answer to the general's charges that the attacks on his campaign expenditures were being made for the purpose of influencing the Michigan vote.

Borah Answer to Wood.

"Press dispatches state you claim the attack upon you was to sway the voters of Michigan," the telegram said. "You are in part correct. It was intended to sway the voters not only in

Automatic Hot Water Service At All Times

Would you like to have an endless supply of clean, fresh, piping-hot water in your home, ready for use any time—every time—a hot water faucet is opened? Would it not be a wonderful convenience and comfort especially if that service was absolutely free from even the necessity of striking a match? This is exactly the service you have day and night, winter and summer, year after year, from the

HUMPHREY AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER

When you open a hot water faucet, powerful gas burners are lighted automatically from a tiny pilot light. Fresh water is heated instantly and hurried to you. Piping-hot water comes at once and continues as long as the faucet is open. A thermostat maintains uniform water temperature. Closing the faucet shuts off gas. Expense stops. Only water needed at the time is heated. Supply is not limited as from a tank. And water is always fresh—never re-heated. All this costs but a few cents a day. Cheaper than the furnace coil or kitchen tank.

$15 Puts It in Your Home Now!

A $15 payment puts a Humphrey in your home. The balance may be paid in easy installments. The Humphrey is beautiful and durable; strongly and sturdily built, and handsomely finished in green and gold. You could not invest $15 to bring a greater daily comfort for every member of the household. Investigate the Humphrey NOW! Ask the gas company or your plumber or come to our show-rooms for demonstration.

For this machine handles your clothes as carefully as you would the most delicate fabrics. In fact, there's only the forcing of the hot suds through and through as the fabrics are lifted and dropped back into the water by the revolving compartments.

It is equally thorough in its cleaning of blankets and heavy work-garments—edges and bands come out of the Thor spotlessly clean, and without the wear caused by contact with a rough rubbing surface.

Come in and see how efficiently the Thor works. An extended payment plan of purchasing makes it a simple matter to have this washing machine in your own laundry.

STRIKE 20,000 FROM REGISTRY; MORE TO FOLLOW

795,250 on Poll Books; Hunt Repeater Squad.

Twenty thousand names were stricken from the precinct registration books of Chicago and Cicero Saturday night by the judges and clerks of election. Proceedings will be started today before the board of election commissioners on behalf of the regular organization in the Twenty-first ward to knock out at least 1,000 more names, according to James F. Burns, candidate for ward committeeman. More than 2,000 names of alleged "singers" went into the discard in that ward Saturday night.

In the Eighteenth ward nearly 1,000 names were put out of commission. Homer K. Galpin, chairman of the Republican county committee, who is a candidate for re-election, said proceedings will be instituted against at least 1,000 more names that remain on the books.

Charge Fraud Attempt.
That there has been a city-wide attempt at fraudulent registration is the claim of the Deneen central organization. Arrangements were completed last night by which a systematic attack will be started today against what is said to be a flying squadron of repeaters who were registered two weeks ago in a number of south side wards, including the Third, Sixth, Seventh, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-second.

The figures by wards after the Saturday elimination of names, as issued by the election commissioners, gives a men's total in Chicago of 520,623 and of women of 274,627, making a grand total of 795,250.

WEDS MARGARET ERE DIVORCING ROSE, NOW IT'S PONTIAC FOR LEO

For the small oversight of neglecting to divorce Rose before wedding Margaret, Leo Cassell will stay in the Pontiac reformatory for an indeterminate term of from one to five years. Judge Robert E. Crowe, chief justice of the Criminal court, sentenced him yesterday after he had pleaded guilty to the charge of bigamy.

Wife No. 1 first became suspicious of her husband after he had purchased a plush coat for No. 2 on No. 1's charge account. A bit of sleuthing revealed to her that last October he had married Miss Margaret Keef, who was living at 549 North Dearborn street.

MRS. ROSE CASSELL, MRS. MARGARET KEEF, who was living at 549 North Dearborn street, was dishonorably discharged from the army for stealing $700 from his buddies in France, said that he told No. 2 that he was not divorced. He stated that he deserted his first wife in 1916, after being married for two years, and that he left his second wife in favor of his first last February.

WIFE SUES IRON PRESIDENT.
Mrs. Charlotte Lewinsky filed a bill for divorce yesterday, charging her husband, Barney, with cruelty. He is alleged to have hired detectives to watch Mrs. Lewinsky and make her life miserable. Lewinsky is president of the Archer Iron and Metal company.

TRANQUIL 19TH WARD DEVELOPS PRIMARY FIGHT

Mamer Seeks to Eliminate Committee Rival.

The Nineteenth ward suddenly develops as a Republican political battleground at the April 13 primaries. This became apparent yesterday when Christopher Mamer, for years the unquestioned Republican leader and committeeman from the ward, filed proceedings to eliminate G. C. Esposito from the Republican primary ballots for ward committeeman.

Political leaders held the action of the Mamer organization to be last ditch strategy on the part of the city hall faction. Esposito is the candidate of the Deneen group. He is said to have an Italian backing in the ward that makes him the first real contender that Mamer ever has had. Esposito's primary petition is being attacked before the board of election commissioners.

Storm in Twenty-fifth.
The Twenty-fifth ward was the center of the political storm last night. Sheriff Peters, in a speech at 6231 Broadway, sharply attacked the policies of the city hall administration. "The reckless expenditure of money, the untimely submission of the $34,000,000 bond issue, the city bankrupt and Fred Lundin's effort to control the county central committee with its per-ious consequences must be condemned by every right thinking citizen," the sheriff said.

The campaign committee for George K. Schmidt, who is the regular organization candidate for reelection as committeeman in the Twenty-fifth ward, issued an appeal to all Republican service men in the ward, signed by William Lewis Judy, Harry Pritzker, John M. Gerbin, and Dan Dwight Henry.

"Work Shows Friendship."
"We, as ex-service men," reads the statement, "support Mr. Schmidt because he is a 100 per cent American, born on Chicago's north side, where he has always lived; because he is a citizen of splendid character and big heart, whose reputation in business, in generosity, in citizenship, all men know; because he is a true friend of the service men, having shown his friendship and his sincerity by his own good works, at the cost of his time, energy, and money."

From the Third ward headquarters of C. Arch Williams, Deneen candidate for committeeman, came the declaration that Williams charges a storekeeper at Thirty-ninth street and Indiana avenue has received anonymous threats that his store will be bombed unless Williams' banners are removed therefrom, and that the word has been passed to members of the janitors' union in the Third ward that they must get busy for W. A. Bither, city hall candidate for committeeman.

Colosimo Wins Divorce on Desertion Charge.
James Colosimo, cafe owner, was granted a decree of divorce yesterday by Judge McGorty when he testified his wife had deserted him in 1917 because he would not take her to Europe.

HEARST MAY LEAD THE 'COCKED HAT' PARTY IN FALL

New York, March 20.—[Special.]—An organization to be called the American Constitutional party, having for its purpose the nomination of William R. Hearst for president of the United States, will be formed in Brooklyn if its members can induce Hearst to head it. Delegates said to represent twenty assembly districts met in Brooklyn today and formed the basis of the movement.

An emblem of a "cocked hat," typical of the American revolutionary period, was adopted to go on the ballot. The motto is to be "Restore the constitution and put the government back in the hands of the people."

MYSTIC MILLER IN JAIL; ADMITS $200,000 FRAUD

Got Only $45 a Week for Forgeries, He Says.

Herman J. Blumson, the mystic
Miller of South Africa, who came to Chicago as a rag peddler and left it last July with a record of several hundred thousand dollars charged to his name, is back in town. Yesterday, after being escorted from Washington
by Detective
Sergeant Edward
Kelly, he took up his residence in the county jail.

Before becoming the guest of Jailer Melster-heim, however,
Blumson confessed to Assistant State's Attorney Lightfoot and Melaniphy that he had been responsible for forging several banks of more than $200,
000. He added that most of this money went to other persons. As a result of his story the states attorneys office is looking for five men whose names have been withheld.

Kited Checks and Flour.
It was a tale of kited checks and four that never traveled that the elderly miller told the prosecutor's men. In order to keep above water Blumson, secretary and treasurer of the late Bar Cereal and Milling company, had worked fast.

"Soon after our firm was incorporated in 1916 we started to make money and decided to enlarge our plant," he said. "So the idea was conceived of having bills of lading printed, similar to those of the railroad administration. We arranged with some railroad clerks to steal a few rubber stamps."

How It Worked.
Thereupon the concern began to receive some large "orders" for flour.
The bills of lading for the same, accompanied by the drafts, would be taken to the bank, which would discount them for cash.

According to Blumson, about $175, 000 was obtained by check kiting. He declares that all he got out of the concern for which he forged and swindled was a weekly salary of $45.

Assistant State's Attorney Melaniphy stated that $95,000 is charged against Blumson on the books of the milling company. Further, he says, there are twenty-two pieces of Chicago property in his name.

Among the banks which were the victims of Blumson are Greenbaum & Sons, $55,000; Corn Exchange National, $64,000; Second Security of Chicago, $40,000; and the Wisconsin National of Milwaukee, $60,000.

vealed Klemek had received a check

KEYSTONE WORK GRIFF'S PROBLEM FOR FLAG RACE

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Tampa, Fla., March 29.—[Special.]—It is possible for a pair of youngsters to handle things around the mid-day bag in big league style their first year out, Clark Griffith may have quite an improved ball club in Washington this year.

Even if it isn't possible for the kids to do everything right, the team ought to be better than last year, when Griffith had to turn an outfielder into a shortstop and lost a lot of ball games because of weakness in that position.

On the whole, Griffith has a pretty nice hitting club, a bunch of speed men on the bases, and a high class pitching staff. All he needs is a first grade infield to make a ball club that might even get into the fight for pennant honors, but it looks doubtful if his youngsters can turn out such class, at least this year.

Acid Test Ahead.

The two youngsters who hold the title of Washington in their hands are Harry Harris and Jimmy O'Neil, who will be tested in the big league style. It may be to their advantage that they are not extremely young. O'Neil is 24 years old and the other is 23.

Harris was a whizkid at second base last season for Buffalo in the International league. He hit .278, and was as good as he might do nearly as well in the big show.

O'Neil was with Shreveport of the Texas league, where he batted for .314, which is quite a swatting mark in the big league. He is a right-handed pitcher, and so is quite a swatting mark in the big league today, and last year he came through as a hitter.

Frank Elberbe is a youngster from the Birmingham club, who swatted and played third base in leading fashion last year, but he may require more experience to stick in the big league.

With Clyde Milan in left, Sam Rice in center, and Bobby Roth in right, Washington has a classy set of outfielders, and three base runners who are sure to be up among the leaders in a season's work. Howard Shanks will act as utility outfielder.

Two Sturdy Backstops.

Val Pichish and Ed Garrity are two sturdy catchers and good hitters. Garrity is a great pinch hitter, and also can play an outfield position if needed. Pichish is more active and faster behind the bat than any catcher in the league except Ray Schalk.

Ricardo Torres, a Cuban, who caught for the Cuban Stars in their games last fall against the Americans in Havana, is the third string catcher. Griffith has a few new pitchers to try. Walter Johnson and Jim Shaw do the slab work. However, it is likely that Walter and Jim will be the leaders as before. In Erle Erickson, a capable right hander has been found to help bear the burden. During the last month of the 1931 season John Lachry was with the club and did some tall hurling. He is a husky left hander and is sure of a place on the staff. Harry Courtney is another southpaw, 6 feet 2 inches in height, who pitched three games stylishly last fall for Griffith. He was with New Haven, but it isn't likely he'll have to go back there. In addition there are several other youngsters.

NEW TEAMS IN BOYS' LEAGUE.

The Boys' Baseball league received applications of six new clubs at the weekly meeting at 123 West Randolph street. The new average between the ages of 16 and 18 years.

In the Wake of the News

BATTER UP!
The bugs and nuts
Are on their way
To see and hear
Friend Hank O'Day
Swell out his chest,
Wave at the sun,
And elocute:
"Str-i-ke One!"

The Bearkiss and Enamel Rose
Will soon put on
Their salary clothes,
And Billy Ev-
Ans will imbue
The rook with chills:
"Str-i-ke Two!"

Tomorrow we Shall all go forth
And strain our lungs
For all they're worth,
And shriek as we
Flak Klem, in glee,
Chants this refrain:
"Str-i-ke Three!"

Old Winter's through,
The Umpires shout:
"Beat it, you boob,
You're Out-u-t!"

GUY F. LEE.

This Wake is conducted by Harvey T. Woodruff.
Help! Help!

The decision of Buck Weaver to re-join the Sox and the return of Swede Risberg from the holdout ranks batters Kid Gleason's flag hopefuls considerably. But there is still a big gap separating them from the champion and also-ran class.

For one thing Chick Gandil is still among the missing and apparently intends to remain so. With Chick gone the Sox are minus one of the cogs of their winning machine. No youngster will develop into a second Gandil. That is a certainty. Possibly a trade may bring an experienced guardian for the initial corner. Even then there are few Gandils in the big leagues today. Chick was a great ball player in recent years. You can't take it

SOX SLIP A TRIMMING TO TEXAS COLLEGIANS WITH 'WILKIE' ON SLAB

Georgetown, Texas, Mar. 29.—[Special.]—The White Sox paused here long enough today to beat the Southwestern University nine, 7 to 3. The big leaguers walked off with the game easily when Stafford, a pitcher who apes Carl Mays, lost control and passed half a dozen pale horses.

Roy Wilkinson got a chance to pitch and lasted six innings before his sore arm caused Manager Gleason to take him out. Wilkie has not worked for some time, having caught cold in his pitching arm when training in Waco. Payne finished the game in good style. The Sox had a look at "Red" Oestergard today. He is a young person under contract to the Cincinnati Reds, seems like a ball player. He picked Wilkinson for a two bagger and Payne for a single.

The Sox play the University of Texas at Austin tomorrow and get a look at "Bib" Falk, the collegian touted as "The second George Sauer." The Sox have him under contract and he will report in June. Score: White Sox.....0 1 0 0 3 0 0 0 6-7 8 3 Southwestern.....0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 3-6 1 Batteries—Wilkinson, Payne and Lynn; Stafford, Robertson and Pearson.

Cornell Coach Declares Johnson Track Wonder

New York, March 29.—"The greatest track athlete ever turned out in this country" is the tribute paid to Carl E. Johnson, captain of the University of Michigan track team, by Jack Moakley, track coach at Cornell, according to the Cornell Sun. Moakley does not except A. C. Kraenzlein, who was the great star at Penn in 1897-98. Moakley expects that before the year is over Johnson will conclusively prove his right to the title of "greatest American athlete."

Woods and Waters LARRY ST. JOHN MORE ABOUT PRESERVING MINNOWS.

In addition to the formalin and borax methods of preserving minnows, mentioned here some days ago, here are two others highly recommended by an old time minnow fisherman in Oshkosh. He modestly requests that we do not publish his name.

"I see that you are looking for a way to preserve minnows. Will give you a couple of good ones we use up in this neck of the woods. Take an earthenware jar, put a layer of salt in the bottom, a thin cloth over the salt, then a layer of minnows, placed so as not to have one on top of the other, then another cloth over the minnows, salt on this cloth, then another cloth, then another layer of minnows, and so on, until the receptacle is filled. The object is to keep the salt from coming in direct contact with the minnows."

"The other method, still better but more work, is to salt the minnows down in wet salt for two or three days, so that they are salted all the way through. Then take them out of the salt, place them on a board and let them dry. Care must be taken in the drying to keep them from hardening; you want them just nice and firm. When dried pack them in real dry salt and keep in a real dry place. Put up in this way, they keep nicely, and look as if they were fresh from the water."

These stunts are worth trying, because any method using salt for a preservative is superior to the use of chemicals, such as formalin, which have a taste of odor that fishes do not like.

Of course, we all prefer fresh minnows, but it often happens that the fish bite well when minnows are scarce and hard to get; hence the wisdom of preserving a few when they are plentiful for lean days to come.

ATTORNEY FOR MAGEE DOESN'T NAME OTHERS IN "BASEBALL BOMB"

New York, March 29.—President Heydler of the National league today received a letter from the attorney for Lee Magee, who has been credited with saying that he will make sensational revelations about gambling in baseball. The letter, dated last Friday, mentioned no other player, President Heydler's statement in part follows:

"In the press of yesterday and Saturday appeared a statement in definite form, in which the Cincinnati attorney for Lee Magee announced that he had sent me specific charges against four National league players, and stating that the names of these players were being submitted."

"Magee is not under contract with any National league club, and we, therefore, have no official connection or authority over him. Nevertheless he threatened last week to blow up himself and others by a 'bomb,' which he stated would go off March 27. I have urged him to speed up the explosion. I have heard nothing yet."

Two Ex-Sox Aid Seattle Trip Up Cubs in 10th, 3-2

Hanford, Cal., March 29.—[Special.]—Chicago Cubs went ten innings to drop today's game to Seattle, 3 to 2. Speed Martin pitched five rounds and held the coast team to one tally. Hendrix was on the slab the rest of the way. Two former White Sox, Bohne and Hartford, starred in the Seattle infield, each scoring a run.

Her hair isn't bobbed, girls. It was a wig.

I should like to write something thrillingly original this morning—but it can't be done on a Pauline Frederick picture. As always, she's beautifully dressed. As always, she's under suspicion for something she didn't do. As always, looking beautiful and mournful, she lands on the witness stand. As always, there's a verdict of "not guilty."

And, as always, the picture ends happily.

But, said she, changing the subject, would you look at the cast?

Everybody in it is an actor of merit. And what will be of much interest to many is the knowledge that Marguerite Snow comes back, a little older, a little quieter, a little gentler, but to me more appealing than she ever has been before.

And it is so nice to know that Miss Frederick still has her raven tresses intact!

One afternoon as I was driving our car over a rough country road those riding in the car received some hard jolts, and as we hit one of these my small daughter said, "Don't get 'cited, pop." C. G. B.

Billy had just returned from his first day at kindergarten. "How do you like it, Billy?" I asked. "O, it's fine, but I wish we didn't have to string beads; that's a girl's job. It's a hatable job for a boy." A. L. C.

Ralph enjoyed riding in the machine and heard his father often complain of the batteries and thought they made it squeak. When baby sister kept up her continual crying one evening he said: "I bet her batteries will never run down." C. T.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

Calling on Sick Friend.

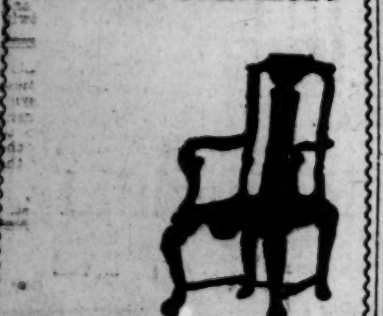

"Dear Miss Blake: For several months I have been reading your column, and now I must write to you for advice. I am a young girl 17 years old. I have many boy friends, but do not go out very often, as my mother thinks I am too young, so I have refused many invitations on that account. Recently I have heard that one of the boys has been home and is very ill. One of the neighbors that knows this friend has invited me to go with him and make a visit to the boy who is ill. Now, would it be proper for me to go, or should I make up some excuse and just send my best regards to him through this friend?" B.

I believe it would be better for you just to send your regards, which you might do in a note to the sick boy. If it were an older woman friend who was making the call it would be different.

FASHIONS BLUE BOOK

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—Whole costumes and suits are made of plaids. Suits are trimmed with it. And one of the smartest of present day costumes is the coat of duvetyn or velvet in either black or tobacco brown, combined with the skirt of checked wool.

An interesting phase of this plaid epidemic is the fact that many of the plaids used are far from the buoyant tartan colorings. Their tones are, in fact, somber. Brown and white, black and white, soft dark gray and black—these are the most stunning of the skirt and suit combinations.

The same is true of the plaid motor coat. In today's model, for example, the woolen material is in white and tan. A new feature is achieved by the huge pockets. And one of the new harem veils in brown chiffon net, with deep border, shows how we may involve the orient in our Scotch plaids.

HOME GARDENS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Every garden, truck patch and available vacant lot in Chicago should be planted this spring. It is being generally realized that the need for the enlistment of all the available space in cities and their suburbs for the raising of vegetables is of as much importance this year as it was during the war. Some believe there is even a greater need now.

Every farmer in the United States has been asked to produce all he can this year, and through the various farm organizations they have pledged themselves to do their best. The city dweller is asked to help by planting a garden. Schools, clubs, and many women's organizations are getting behind the garden movement in all sections of the country.

City people are limited in the selection of a location for the garden, but this need not discourage them. In most every case the success of a garden depends on the earnestness of the gardener and the characteristics of the soil. Sandy soil predominates in most places in and around Chicago, and of course there is both the rich and the poor soil to deal with.

Regardless of the soil, whether sandy, clay, limestone, or humus type, if the gardener works intelligently and industriously he can overcome many difficulties. This is true even with poor soils, but if you are fortunate enough to do your gardening in a rich loamy soil a good crop of vegetables is assured.

Pick up a few handfuls of the soil here and there over the garden and examine it. If there is too much sand the soil will be so open that it will not retain water and the plants will suffer in dry periods, and the soil will not hold the plant food within reach of the roots. The soil needs to be more compact, and by adding rotten leaves, decayed vegetable matter of any kind, or manure, the porous spaces will be filled up. If the soil is of the clay type, add sand.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

P. T. THE WELL KNOWN FANCY doth turn toward in spring. If there is anything wrong with your feet that is the season for them to protest against the gripping shoes. Powdered sulphur dusted between the toes where the corn has made its crib will cure. From three days to a week's time will take the "jump" out of it. How about seeing a chiropodist? A good operator will take the wicked thing right out by the roots.

On the day of my visit the main business going on under the head of the department, who worked long months for soldiers over in France, was the making of marmalade for the army hospitals here, but two of the girls were making tea ring by the following recipe:

One cake of yeast, one-half cup of lukewarm water, one-half cup of milk, one-half teaspoon of salt, one-fourth cup of sugar, three tablespoons of fat, one egg, three to four cups of flour. Dissolve the yeast in lukewarm water. Heat the milk, add sugar, salt and fat. When lukewarm, add dissolved yeast, beaten egg, and flour until stiff enough to handle. Knead until smooth and elastic. Put into greased bowl, grease or moisten the top, cover, and allow to stand until double in bulk. Knead, roll into an oblong one-fourth inch thick, spread with softened fat, sprinkle with sugar and currants or raisins cut in pieces. Roll like a jelly roll, place on a greased pan, and make a ring of the roll by placing ends together.

A California Tea Ring.

San Diego, Cal.—(Special Correspondence.)—Much could be said in praise of the San Diego High school, its wonderful situation, its equipment, its general attractiveness, and its opportunities. Its domestic science department has six teachers. Its cooking laboratories are good, and its flat where the girls serve a luncheon to six of the teachers or some of the teachers and guests—I was an appreciative guest at that table—gives them exceedingly definite experience in preparing and serving a meal in a place like home.

On the day of my visit the main business going on under the head of the department, who worked long months for soldiers over in France, was the making of marmalade for the army hospitals here, but two of the girls were making tea ring by the following recipe:

One cake of yeast, one-half cup of lukewarm water, one-half cup of milk, one-half teaspoon of salt, one-fourth cup of sugar, three tablespoons of fat, one egg, three to four cups of flour. Dissolve the yeast in lukewarm water. Heat the milk, add sugar, salt and fat. When lukewarm, add dissolved yeast, beaten egg, and flour until stiff enough to handle. Knead until smooth and elastic. Put into greased bowl, grease or moisten the top, cover, and allow to stand until double in bulk. Knead, roll into an oblong one-fourth inch thick, spread with softened fat, sprinkle with sugar and currants or raisins cut in pieces. Roll like a jelly roll, place on a greased pan, and make a ring of the roll by placing ends together.

With a pair of shears, make cuts about an inch apart and from the outside almost to the center. Turn each slice and draw the upper edge down to make a point. This gives the effect of a many pointed star. Cover and allow to rise until light. Bake from twenty-five to thirty-five minutes in a hot oven, decreasing oven heat last half of baking. Remove from pan and cover with water frosting flavored with lemon if desired.

KILLS HIS WIFE; TRAPPED, ENDS LIFE WITH SHOT

Strangled Pair Die in Tragedy Over Flivver.

Miss Bonnie Manning was shot twice and killed last night by her husband, who then trapped himself and died with her in a flivver on the corner of St. Clair and Madison streets.

The Manning couple were married at the home of Mrs. Manning, 1234 N. Dearborn, in 1917. They had three children, a son and two daughters. The son, Charles, was a student at the University of Chicago. The daughter, Margaret, was a student at the University of Illinois. The daughter, Elizabeth, was a student at the University of Wisconsin.

On the night of the tragedy, the Manning couple were driving in a flivver on the corner of St. Clair and Madison streets. The car was trapped by a fire hydrant. The husband, who was driving, shot his wife in the head. He then shot himself in the chest. The car was then crushed by the fire hydrant.

NAB POLICEMAN'S SON, 3 OTHERS AS ROBBER BAND

Three holdup men walked into the jewelry store of George W. Hopper at 503 West Sixty-ninth street yesterday afternoon and took $100 in cash and several thousand dollars' worth of jewelry. A fourth waited in an automobile.

A street car was passing by. On the back platform was Policeman William Fleming of Hyde Park. A woman called to him and he jumped out. He said he is Charles Klein, 17, son of Policeman Charles Klein, who stands at the Rush street bridge.

Klein's confession resulted in the arrest of Joseph Lacey, 18 West Ontario street, and Robert Francis and Leroy Donaldson of the Rex hotel, and the recovery of most of the jewelry. Lacey has been employed as chauffeur for Arthur S. Hook of Oak Park, president of the Calumet Steel company. He said he used his employer's car in the robbery.

FIRM HERE SUES VICTOR COMPANY FOR $2,713,037

Trenton, N. J., March 29.—[Special.]—The Shelton Electric company of Chicago today filed suit in the United States District court here against the Victor Talking Machine company of Camden, seeking to recover $2,713,037 for alleged damage to the plaintiff's business.

The Chicago firm manufactures a motor to operate the turntable of phonographs. It charges that soon after it had found a market for its product the defendant concern directed all Victor dealers to cease handling the device. This, it is asserted, caused the cancellation of orders for thousands of the motors and the business of the plaintiff is said to have fallen from 3,000 motors a month to fewer than seven.

It is further charged that the Victor company is unlawfully restraining interstate commerce.

3 GO TO PRISON FOR MURDER OF DR. KARREMAN

Judge Anton T. Zeman of the Criminal court yesterday sentenced the three slayers of Dr. Adrian Reginald Karreman to terms ranging from four years to life. James Kloris, 26 years old, a grocer, received the "life" sentence. His confederates, George Pappas, and Christ Paras, are each 19 years old. The three entered pleas of guilty.

Dr. Karreman was strangled with a rope in his home, 6417 Stewart avenue, last September. Then his slayers set fire to the house.

The murder was the sequel to a quarrel between Dr. Karreman and Kloris over the rental of a store.

United Gas Co. Opens Fight to Raise Its Rates

Hearing of the petition of the United Gas and Electric company, which supplies gas to Aurora and sixty-three other towns, to increase rates from 90 cents a thousand cubic feet to $1.25, was begun yesterday before Commissioner Walter A. Shaw of the state public utilities commission.

Attorney E. F. Alschuler said the Coal Products Manufacturing company of Joliet, from which the United buys its gas, has increased its rates from 18 to 43 cents a thousand feet. Cities served by the United contend the present rate of 90 cents is high enough in view of the quality of the gas and the service rendered.

Refuses to Be Arbitrator
While Walkout Lasts.

Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler yesterday announced he would refuse to act as arbitrator in the strike of 900 members of the Live Stock Handlers' union at the stockyards until every one of the men has returned to work. That was his answer to Martin P. Murphy, president of the defunct stockyards labor council and leader of the strikers, when the latter asked him if he would be willing to act if the case is brought to arbitration. It is the same attitude which the judge maintained in former walkouts at the yards.

In the meanwhile the Chicago Junction railroad has notified other roads that no live stock except horses will be accepted for Chicago markets. Hundreds of cars of stock are being held up on the outskirts of the city. The Illinois Central diverted sixty-nine cars to Omaha and more than 150 cars are being held between Rock Island and Chicago by the Rock Island.

Only 1,500 Cattle Received.

Whereas the yards usually receive 15,000 head of cattle on Monday morning, only 1,500 head were received yesterday. Most of these were direct shipments. Hog receipts were cut down from 45,000 to 2,000 and sheep from 15,000 to 5,000. Officials of the packing companies admit they will have to shut down if the strike continues.

"We have enough stock on hand for today," said an official of Armour & Company, "but if the strike continues we must gradually close down. A wait will end all departments of the plant shut."

O. J. Henkle, general manager of the Union Stock Yards Transit company, said practically all of his employees were out except the watchmen.

What Men Demand.

"They have asked for an increase of from $30 to $45 a month with the elimination of all Sunday work," he said. "They want double time for Sunday. They have been getting from $15 to $18 a month. Their demands are in direct violation of their agreement signed last June. At that time they agreed not to strike until peace was signed. They also agreed to settle all differences before Judge Alschuler as arbitrator."

"We met their committee and they refused to arbitrate the matter. This leaves us nothing to do but wait until they agree to arbitrate. I understand they will meet in the morning to decide whether or not they'll arbitrate."

CHICAGO PUT ON COAST TO COAST AIR MAIL ROUTE

Washington, D. C., March 29.—[Special.]—The senate today adopted a committee amendment to the postal appropriation bill, appropriating $1,154,000 to purchase airplanes and maintain an airplane mail service between New York and San Francisco by way of Chicago and Omaha.

Southern senators banded and supported an amendment by Senator Gay of Louisiana, to eliminate Chicago and Omaha from the route and have the planes travel by way of Washington, Atlanta, and New Orleans. The amendment was defeated.

Senator Townsend of Michigan, explaining the committee amendment, admitted airplane mail service was still experimental and that there was no immediate prospect of its supplanting mail by train.

One of the chief merits of the provision, he said, was that it would keep up the manufacture of aircraft and the training of aviators and prevent the country from being caught entirely unprepared for aerial warfare.

ABT DIAMOND CO. BANKRUPT, SUIT IN COURT SAYS

Bankruptcy proceedings were filed in the United States District court yesterday against the Robert C. Abt company, diamond brokers, at 31 North State street.

According to Attorney Daniel Healy the jewelry firm of Marchand Bros., New York City, were the principal petitioners, filing debts of $14,409.24. It is charged certain officials of the Abt company took steps to secure preferential payment to certain creditors.

LIBERTY BONDS, FREED OF TAX, FORDNEY'S PLAN

Would Send Them Up to Par, He Says.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, D. C., March 29.—[Special.]—Tax free Liberty bonds would sell at par on the market, in the opinion of Representative Fordney of Michigan, chairman of the house ways and means committee, where all revenue legislation originates. Mr. Fordney favors the elimination of tax provisions in the present Liberty bond acts, but believes this is not the time to tamper with the revenue laws.

Mr. Fordney's views accord with the theory of the bill recently introduced in the senate by Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey. This bill authorizes the issuance of fifty year bonds, drawing only 3 1/2 per cent interest, but free from all taxation except inheritance taxes. Holders of any of the four issues of Liberty bonds would be able to convert them into the new bonds if they so desired.

How It Would Work.

Those holding comparatively small amounts of the bonds would not care to do so, as they now receive a higher rate of interest, and they are not concerned about tax exemption features, inasmuch as taxes do not apply at present except to those with more than $5,000 worth of the bonds.

The influence upon the market of the tax free bonds would come from the fact that men of large means would be attracted to this form of investment to such an extent that their purchases would stimulate prices to a marked degree.

Representative Fordney, while not specifically endorsing the Frelinghuysen bill, said today that he always had opposed the taxation of interest on Liberty bonds.

Suffers in Competition.

"It has been my belief that the amount of money received by the government through the taxation of Liberty bonds interest has been only one-third or one-fourth the amount of loss suffered by other investors through the depreciation of the value of the bonds," said Mr. Fordney. "When so many other kinds of bonds, such as municipal, are tax free it is not proper that the government Liberty bonds should be subject to taxation. Tax free bonds would sell at par."

Eventually congress will get down to an adjustment of these imperfect conditions in the present laws. I do not believe this is just the time to do it."

Republican leaders in congress have a definite policy of postponing general revenue and tariff revision at least until next winter, and probably until after March 4, 1921, in the event that a Republican president is elected in November. It is the presumption that a new Republican president would convene a special session soon after his inauguration to undertake a comprehensive revision of revenue and tariff legislation.

GOAT TO FURNISH MILK FOR UNDERFED HOSPITAL CHILDREN

Mrs. James A. Patten, wife of the Evanston multi-millionaire retired broker, has bought a nanny goat.

The goat is just a plain, ordinary quadruped and bears no marks to distinguish it from the lowliest inhabitant of tin-can alley.

Her sole duty will be to supply milk for infants in Evanston hospital. And if the experiment proves successful, Mrs. Patten will buy a whole herd of goats to provide hundreds of undernourished babies with milk.

The latest addition to exclusive Evanston's animal population is scheduled to arrive within the next few days. She will probably be kept on the grounds of the Evanston hospital.

Mrs. Patten is interested in the proposed project to purchase goats for the Cook county forest preserve as a source of milk supply to county institutions for infants and invalids who are undernourished.

Woodlawn Women Fight Extravagance in Dress

The members of the Woodlawn Women's club have decided that American girls are dressing too extravagantly and in very poor taste.

They will hold a meeting in St. Paul's Community house, Sixtieth street and Woodlawn avenue, this afternoon. Mrs. Genevieve Reid of Marshall Field & Co.'s educational bureau will address them.

Mrs. Reid, with models and merchandise, will show the women how young girls, young women, young matrons and older women may dress inexpensively, modestly and stylishly.

BERGER COUNSEL ATTACKS LANDIS IN APPEAL PLEA

Declares Court Erred
in Espionage Trial.

Allegations of prejudice on the part of Federal Judge Keneaw M. Landis and improper conduct of officials of the United States marshal's office formed the principal arguments of the defense yesterday in the hearing in the United States Circuit court on the appeal of Victor Berger and four co-defendants, under sentence of twenty years for violation of the espionage act.

Seymour Steadman, as general counsel for the defense, attacked the indictments, court procedure during the trial, and many rulings made by Judge Landis.

Denies Berger Was in Plot.

Harry M. Cochems of Milwaukee, representing Mr. Berger, attempted to show that his client had not entered into conspiracy at any time with the other defendants, and that the charge upon which they were convicted was improper.

Special Assistant United States Attorney General Joseph B. Fleming answered for the government. He described the indictment as one of the most complete ever submitted in any trial and specified numerous alleged "overt acts" to connect Berger's activities with those of other defendants.

LEAF FITS FINE, NEW LINK BRIDGE WILL OPEN MAY 15

The south leaf of the huge new link bridge was lowered at 11 o'clock yesterday and dropped into the grooves prepared for it to a hair's breadth.

Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, climbed to the top of the leaf with a policeman and rode down with it.

"It means that the link bridge will surely be open for traffic on May 15," Mr. Faherty said.

Five thousand persons, Mr. Faherty said, watched the trial.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.

How many married couples are happy?

The Answers.

JOHN H. MAUTE, 2420 North Sawyer avenue, a cigar dealer—Why, the majority of my married friends are happy. I would say at least eight out of ten get along just fine. If the man makes enough money to support his wife properly they will be happy. They should have companionship—that is the secret of happiness.

MRS. M. LOUIS, 1664 Edgewater avenue, a housewife—About one out of a hundred. Happy and successful marriages are the rarest thing in Chicago. I dislike to say it, but I couldn't give you any other answer.

MISS EVELYN M. THOMAS, 5256 Indiana avenue, a business girl—One marriage out of ten. Of course, I have never been married, but I know a whole lot of people who have. Seems like happiness is always just around the corner and out of the picture.

MRS. EMIL NEUSCHAEFER, 1918 Lincoln avenue, a housewife—I am happy with my husband and he is happy with me. He's a peach. A model husband, I call him. I put the percentage at one out of a thousand. But please believe that I am happy.

FRANK M. STURNER, 7030 Calumet avenue, an advertising man—I would say that two out of three married couples are happy. You'd be surprised how much happiness there is in this world. We never hear of the happy ones, you know. The couples who are unhappy are the ones who fill our papers with scandal.

Stockholder Faints.

Henry Vette, who purchased a $20,000 interest in the Hecht and Fenn pool and who is a creditor of Marcuse & Co. for $200,000, told of his business relations with Marcuse.

"Well, if Hecht and Fenn are held liable as special partners in the firm, how about yourself? Can you give any reason why you, too, should not be held liable for your share of these millions of uncovered assets?" Judge Landis asked.

Vette thought for a moment, then gasped and fainted. Ben Stern, bailiff, ran to the rescue with a glass of water. Vette was excused from further testimony.

Judge Landis continued the case until Wednesday morning, when it is expected Marcuse will be called upon to give his version of the affair.

Plumbers to Get $1.25
an Hour in Short Time

Nineteen hundred members of the United Order of Plumbers were notified yesterday by the Master Plumbers' association that after May their salary scale would be $1.25 per hour. Their announcement was made after a conference between heads of both organizations. The plumbers are now receiving $1 per hour.

LANDIS DIGS UP MARCUSE FUNDS; ONE MAN FAINTS

Finds Broker Backed by Special Pool.

The "men behind" the bankrupt brokerage concern of Ben Marcuse & Co., which lately occupied quarters in the La Salle street financial district, came under the gentle probe of Judge Keneaw Mountain Landis yesterday.

As a result, one witness fainted while testifying, several more left the courtroom in a dazed condition, and it is believed a way has been opened to obtain thousands of dollars for the creditors of the defunct concern.

The topic of the day's hearing related to a "trust fund" established by Frank A. Hecht and Joseph M. Finn, special partners in the Marcuse concern, in order to comply with the rules of the New York stock exchange. Hecht and Finn, it was shown, had sold shares in the pool, known as the Hecht & Finn Trust company, to numerous persons for varying sums. These persons were immediately cited to court to explain their part in the affair.

"Camouflaged Bucket Shop."

Attorneys Henry Platt and Ellis Mayer, appearing for Marcuse, Hecht, and Finn, argued that the special partners were not liable for more than their original investment and any profits which they may have received. Attorney Julius Moses, counsel for numerous creditors of the concern, spoke at length concerning the $2,500,000 liabilities for which, he said, there were no assets. He intimated that the Marcuse concern was a camouflaged bucket shop and that many customers had been defrauded through such procedure.

"I, too, have received many letters from customers regarding bucket shop tactics on the part of Marcuse, Hecht, and Finn," interrupted Judge Landis. "How about it?"

Attorney Mayer said that, as he understood it, Marcuse in some cases was compelled to sell certain stocks when the market went against him, thus protecting the balance of his stocks, but laying himself open to charges.

"Like Poker Game Killy."

"That reminds me of the old steamboat poker game, where they had a 'kitty' declared the judge. The kitty was the only thing that was a safe bet."

Testimony revealed that in the Hecht and Finn pool Clement and George Studebaker, of the Studebaker company, South Bend, Ind., had invested some $50,000. Judge Landis ordered a telegram dispatched to them asking them to appear before the court on Wednesday. Other interested parties in the pool, Attorney Scott Brown, 208 South La Salle street, counsel for the Studebaker company; Richard Y. Hoffman, 105 South La Salle street; Theodore Regenstein, 210 South Racine street, president of the Regenstein Colortype company; and P. M. Zunker and Henry Vette, partners in a packing plant at 220 North Green street, appeared before the court during the afternoon.

May Make All Liable.

In his questioning of the witnesses Judge Landis dwelt on a possibility that all subscribers to the Hecht and Finn fund might be held liable for the liabilities of the Marcuse concern.

Mr. Regenstein testified that he had invested $15,000 in the pool and had received a dividend of 5 per cent on his holdings recently. He said he was a creditor of Marcuse & Co. to the extent of $25,000.

BANKERS PLEDGE $100,000,000 IN LOANS ON HOMES

Mortgage Men Act to End House Shortage.

Resolutions pledging the members of the Chicago Mortgage Bankers' club to lend $100,000,000 on the usual terms during 1920 in an effort to end the housing shortage were adopted last night at an executive session held in the Palmer house.

Indication that the plan of the mortgage bankers may obviate the necessity of the diversion of large sums from commercial and manufacturing needs, is carried in a statement issued by Byron V. Kanaley, president.

Part Available at Once.

Mr. Kanaley was asked if the money will be lent under special conditions such as on long term mortgages or at smaller interest than is the custom at present, but this seems not to be contemplated.

"Every house builder or owner knows how things are done," said Mr. Kanaley. "It isn't necessary to say anything about that. Those who are interested will know."

It was announced that a part of the fund will be made immediately available to enable sufferers from the recent tornado to rebuild their homes.

Will End Shortage.

"This huge sum is to be loaned through the regular channels of the established mortgage loan houses, and loaning departments of our banks," reads the statement. "It is the opinion that this will solve the present housing shortage in Chicago."

"The club decided that the need is not only for bungalows and houses, but also for larger buildings and this fund will be available for all these classes of buildings. The present established loan channels of the 270 loan houses of Chicago have a loaning capacity of over $300,000,000 a year."

800,000 New Yorkers Plan Revolt Against Rent Hogs

New York, March 29.—(Special).—A mass meeting conference of 648 delegates representing 324 Jewish trades unions, consumers' societies, tenants' organizations, fraternal orders and congregations, said to represent 800,000 individuals, was held tonight and an organization formed for a general revolt against exorbitant rents. The delegates planned to withhold all rents they deem oppressive.

BLACKLIST FEAR LATEST WOE OF TENANTS' LIVES

To the troubles of numerous tenants—including soaring rents and moving van strikes and the difficulty of getting a place to move—the fear of the blacklist has been added.

A. E. Jessurun, treasurer of the Chicago Tenants' Protective league, explained the matter last night at a meeting of the Wilson avenue arbitration board—Mr. Jessurun and W. G. Minnemyer, representing the tenants of Racine avenue, and William Jensen, representative of the Cook county real estate board's arbitration committee. "We've had many complaints," said Mr. Jessurun, "some families saying the landlords had boosted the rent 100 per cent. Where the complaint is adjusted between landlord and tenant we go no further with it. Some complaints are taken up with the real estate board, but there must be no publicity as to the tenants, for some of them fear if their names are published they will be blacklisted by landlords and prevented from getting another flat."

INDICT 6 AS LAKE FOREST LIQUOR THIEVES, REPORT

Special Jury Acts on $100,000 Cases.

The $100,000 Lake Forest liquor theft cases, which have been dragging rather unsuccessfully through the Lake county courts, were made the subject of an investigation by a special grand jury called at Waukegan yesterday by State's Attorney James G. Welch. A representative of the attorney general's office is taking part in the inquiry.

It was reported at night that six indictments already have been returned, but Mr. Welch, who is not taking any more chances of having trials blocked by friends of the defendants, refused to give out the names of those indicted until the capias have been served on them.

Seek to Balk Prosecution?

It was rumored around Waukegan that several members of well known families along the north shore may be hit by the new inquiry.

It was disclosed early in the cases that every possible influence was being brought to bear to block the prosecution of some of the defendants. In several instances in which persons might have been prosecuted for receiving part of the loot, the whiskey—the only evidence on which the state could rest its case—has disappeared.

When the first arrests were made in Lake Forest, Chief James Gordon said the authorities were being hampered by friends of the prisoners "squirreling the loss with the insurance people," who in turn settled with the owners of the liquor. Operatives of the William J. O'Brien Detective agency, working for the insurance companies, obtained confessions from the men arrested and kept these confessions, it is alleged.

Seek Light on Cases.

The investigation now in progress is said to be more for the purpose of throwing light on the activities of persons who have been hindering the prosecution of the cases rather than on the thefts themselves.

The eight men arrested for the thefts are all out on bonds awaiting trial.

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders a vital service by giving multiplications of value to that portion of the crude oil left after gasoline, kerosene and lubricating oils have been extracted, through the production of innumerable by-products, each supplying a definite need.

Thus have been developed products such as Parowax, which serve such useful purposes as a protective coating for cheese, meats and sausages; for match ends; for water-proofing milk bottle caps, ice cream pails and paper drinking cups; and for sealing preserved vegetables, fruits and jellies against bacteria, ferments and mold.

These are but a few of the uses of one of the more than 2000 products manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), covering needful commodities from asphalt to candles.

So vast a program could not be carried out except by a highly specialized organization, developed to maintain numerous contacts with the world of production on one hand, and with the consuming public on the other.

It was the need for such a specialized organization which led to the great development of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). No single function of this great organization has come into being without a definite call to service.

Today the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is big only because the need of its service is great; because the ways in which it is able to serve are continually multiplying as the complexities of modern industrial life increase.

CRIPPLED WIRES CURTAIL GRAIN BUSINESS HERE

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Crippled wire service curtailed business in grain and the receipt and distribution of new grain prices advanced early on local buying and receding on profit taking and bear pressure. March corn was congested and closed 1/4c higher, while May and July finished unchanged and September 3/4c lower.

Corn Trading Curtailed.

Corn traders were inclined to go slow on both sides of the market, pending resumption of wire service. Sentiment was mixed, and what few orders drifted in from the outside were mainly on the buying side. There was nothing in the news to cause any uneasiness on the part of long or short and prices moved slowly within a range of 1/4c, closing about the same as on Saturday, with the exception of March. A little short covering advanced the latter to 1/4c at the last, or within 1/4c of the best figure on the crop.

Outside markets were after cash corn here, even the mixed being taken. Battle Creek bid $1.19 for No. 3 white for five day shipment in central Illinois over Sunday and $1.18 for thirty day shipment, while the south was after the yellow at $1.15 at loading stations for five days. At the same time a Chicago cash handler canceled 20,000 bu. No. 3 yellow for shipment during the summer at $1.14 1/2 track here, equal to 1/2c under the spot market. Buffalo reported the east offering to resell there below spot prices.

Oats Prices Little Changed.

Continued closing of spreads in May oats between Chicago and Winnipeg narrowed the difference 1/4c yesterday, the latter market closing lower, while Chicago was off 1/4c. Trade was light and mainly local. A report that a leading industry was running at reduced capacity had a depressing effect.

A keen demand for cash grain existed, with the south bidding $1.19 for No. 3 white for May shipment and $1.18 for June at loading stations downstate. Premiums unchanged, with No. 2 white 99 1/2c over and No. 3 white 74 1/2c over May.

Barley was in good demand and 1920 higher, malting grades leading. Spot sales were at $1.45 1/2 for later for seed. Receipts 27 cars.

Strikes Hurt Trade.

Labor troubles at the stock yards restricted operations there, as well as in the provision trade in general. Buying support was poor and enough selling pressure developed to carry prices down and close them well toward the inside with good losses. White futures declined, values for fresh meats advanced. Exports for the week of 30,927,000 lbs. of lard and bacon were under last year's. Prices follow:

PRODUCE MARKETS

Butter prices declined here, despite an effort to force an advance as part of arrivals from the West. Receipts were firm and Philadelphia work. Receipts at the four markets, 19,119 tubs.

Cheese trade in Chicago was light and prices lower and Young America's higher. Eastern market was steady, with a fair business.

Live fowls advanced 2c, with a good demand. Potatoes sold well at full prices, with arrivals 90 cars, against 105 cars last year.

ICE A-PLenty FOR ENGLEWOOD NEXT SUMMER

BY AL CHASE.

Englewood ought to have plenty of ice next summer. Two new companies are in the field, one now building a plant with a capacity of 100 tons daily and the other to build a 200-ton plant.

And in connection with the 200-ton plant, Stephen A. Witmanski cleaned up the comfortable profit of $26,000 in one day, according to the county records.

Mr. Witmanski bought the 15x115 leasehold at the southwest corner of Wallace and West Sixty-ninth streets, and the 175x125 fee in Wallace street, 125 feet south of Sixty-ninth street, east front, from the Stockman's Trust and Savings bank for an indicated $25,000.

The following day he sold it to the Englewood Ice and Storage company for an indicated price of $44,000. The property is improved with five frame buildings. An artificial ice plant, to cost in the neighborhood of $200,000, is to be erected at once.

One Hundred Ten Plant.

The Kosmos Ice company, another new concern, bought ten lots at Halsted and Fifty-eighth street, adjoining the Englewood Connecting railway, from John Walker of Pittsburgh, and have started work on a 100-ton plant. The total investment is said to be approximately $175,000.

Another Englewood deal was the purchase by John W. MacLeod of the two-story building, 25x100, at the southeast corner of South Halsted and West Sixty-third street, from the Faber Brewing company, for an indicated price of $60,000. The buyer, who has had a saloon at this corner for many years, will operate a soft drink shop.

Bloch, Klein & Bloch, milliners, have bought from Harry L. Irwin the one-story building in South Halsted street, 40x117, east front, 192 feet north of Sixty-fourth street, for an indicated $91,000. Given Fiat to Daughter.

Mad. Charles Earle Bartley, U. S. A. purchased for his daughter, Mrs. Gladys Bartley Pickett, the six apartment building at 4711-15 Drexel boulevard, from Sherman T. Cooper for an indicated $60,000, subject to $25,000.

The twenty-four apartment building at 4652-58 J. Park avenue, has been purchased by Frederick J. Fadner from Samuel Lederer through John B. De Voney & Co. for a reported price of $85,000 subject to $55,000. The buyer gave 1,937 acres of Michigan farm land at $25,000 as part payment.
